Important: United States immigration regulations require that certification of admission be based upon both academic acceptance and satisfactory evidence of adequate funds to meet all expenses that will be incurred during the student's proposed course of study. Please complete ALL ITEMS (front and back) on this form, carefully, in English. Use typewriter or print neatly in ink. Incomplete forms will be returned unprocessed. Graduate applicants must submit this form even if an assistantship has been requested (see reverse side of this form).

Please send documents to support your financial declaration. Supporting documentation is needed for each person or party who will be contributing to the cost of your education. The documents should reflect the person's financial status over time. Examples of supporting documentation include: several months' bank statements or an official letter, on bank stationery, indicating the amount of funds available. All documents must be in English or officially translated into English and the monetary amounts expressed in U.S. dollars. Students need to keep a duplicate set of all documentation. They will be necessary to apply for a visa and to enter the United States.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT
Estimated Expenses¹ for International Students Fall 2012-Spring 2013
Nine-Month Academic Year, September through May

	Undergraduate	Graduate
Living Expenses:	12,370.00	12,370.00
Tuition:	14,355.00	14,095.00
Fees:	1,145.00	1,090.00
Health Insurance (required):	1,280.00	1,280.00
TOTAL:	$29,150.00	$28,835.00

The costs listed above are approximate costs for one academic year (9 months). Add approximately $4,500.00 for summer living expenses. Transportation costs are not included. If you are bringing family members with you, you must have approximately $6,000.00 in additional support per dependent to cover the increased cost of room, board, and insurance.

Residents of countries which hold approved Sister City/Sister Province agreements, qualify for resident tuition. Undergraduate resident tuition is approximately $4,390.00. Graduate resident tuition is approximately $6,895.00 for the nine-month academic year.

¹Estimated expenses are subject to change. Fees are university-wide fees and do not include course or department specific fees. For the most up-to-date information, go to http://www.uaf.edu/admissions/pdf/intl_financial.pdf.
