Dr. Walkie Charles:

“DYNAMIC ASSESSMENT IN A YUP’IK L2 INTERMEDIATE ADULT CLASSROOM”

As a native Yup’ik speaker, Dr. Charles explores educational relationships—framed by cultural and linguistic differences—between students and teachers in the classroom that mirror many of his own experiences growing up in a small rural village in Alaska.

Sponsored by:
College of Education,
Department of Education Culture & Society,
Environmental and Sustainability Program, Political Science,
Ethnic Studies, American West Center,
The Graduate School Office of Diversity,
VP Office for Diversity and Equity