8 Tim Cantor: Paintings & Writings, donated by Tim Cantor Get this one-of-a-kind autographed book by artist Tim Cantor.
Tim’s first oil painting came at age 5. By age 15, Tim Cantor was given his first gallery exhibition where one of his paintings was acquired by the White House, thereby instigating an immediate demand for his unusual talent. Throughout the following years, his paintings traveled the world with exclusive exhibitions in Athens, Tokyo, Singapore, Paris, Venice, New York, Beverly Hills and San Francisco. The majority of his time creating his paintings has been during the solitude and quietness of night. If he lives an average-length life, he will likely have one of the longest authentic art careers known. One could say that this mysterious artist possesses a rare combination of extraordinary talent, unpredictability and pure artistic nature to set his name in the history books of tomorrow. Yet for now, Tim Cantor keeps far from the madding crowd, shrouded in his studio, painting every night from midnight until morning.

10 Escape the 40-below blues, donated by Linda Hulbert and G-2 Construction
Enjoy a seven-day stay at the Hulberts’ three-bedroom/two-bath/two-car garage ranch-style home in Tucson, Ariz. This 1600-square-foot home is located in The Lakes at Castle Rock subdivision, where you will find lush vegetation with lakes and canals supporting a natural habitat throughout. Enjoy your morning cup of coffee while sitting in the Arizona room and admiring the beautiful surroundings. Want to make it a vacation for the whole family? No problem! The house is fully outfitted for children as well. You’ll find something for everyone. Facilities at The Lakes at Castle Rock include two pools, two Jacuzzis, a sauna, tennis courts, a basketball court and a fitness center. It’s not uncommon to see coyotes, javelina pigs and many types of waterfowl on the walking trails throughout the area. The winner of this generous package may choose any week in 2015. Visit during the Tucson Gem and Mineral Show, the world’s largest treasure hunt, or visit during the Tucson Rodeo and Parade. And that’s not all! Paul and Charity Gitschel of G-2 Construction have generously donated 95,000 Alaska Airlines miles to help you get to and from this amazing vacation package. Please call Linda Hulbert at 452-4400 to arrange your stay.

13 Paradise! Beachfront condo at Sugar Beach on Maui, donated by Ann Tremarello Located on the island of Maui, Sugar Beach Resort offers the ultimate vacation. With miles of pristine and uncluttered beaches right outside the door and a picture-perfect ocean view, our condo offers an atmosphere in which one can completely relax.
The one-bedroom, ocean-front condo for two people is fully furnished with everything needed to make your stay comfortable and effortless. Sugar Beach Resort has a large swimming pool, a hot tub, sauna, bar and sandwich shop, and lounge chairs in the pool area and on the lawn overlooking the ocean.

A short drive away, the village of Kihei provides all services needed: supermarkets, first-class restaurants, variety stores and service stations. Located just a 30-minute drive to the north is the historic town of Lahina, where whaling vessels gathered in the late 19th century. A few miles north is the Kaanapali resort area with unique shops, major hotels, great restaurants and championship golf courses. Your worries, problems and stresses will melt away when you spend a week in paradise at Sugar Beach! Sugar Beach Resort Unit 436 – 6 nights/7 days, owned by Joe and Ann
