Faculty can earn extra money doing what they love: teaching!

The First-Year Experience seminar is a golden opportunity for you to share your enthusiasm and passion for a topic in your discipline, or an interdisciplinary connection between your discipline and another scholarly area that interests you.

Please consider preparing and submitting a proposal for a baccalaureate first-year seminar for summer 2011 or fall 2011. Faculty earn a supplement to salary for course preparation prior to offering the course and for offering the seminar.

Detailed information may be found:

<http://www.uaf.edu/files/gf/2011-proposal.pdf>

Proposal due date is November 29, 2010.

Please send proposals in Word format to fygen@uaf.edu and also to the CLA Dean by November 29, 2010. Please put "First-year Seminar" in the subject line.

Proposals will be ranked by Deans and their recommendations sent to the Vice Provost (dlthomas@alaska.edu) by December 3, 2010.

Currently, CLA faculty are teaching half the Fall 2010 FYE classes. Best wishes for your success!

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

Two quick reminders:

1. Continue curricular processes to have -98 designators "on the books" for your program so that qualified, interested and motivated students can receive academic credit for research they might choose to do under funded undergraduate research opportunity. Recall, a portion of that tuition comes back to the college.
2. "Thanks" to those who worked With students to prepare Applications for the CRS Undergraduate Research Opportunities. Reminder, there are still opportunities for spring via EPSCoR and Center for Global Change.

"THANKS!" to all who met with national consultants from CUR; their report is expected to arrive very soon and we anticipate seeing new opportunities for our students and their faculty mentors.

DEVELOPMENT

"FEATURED FUND"

The UA Foundation has several existing funds which directly support CLA students and CLA programs. See:

http://www.alaska.edu/files/foundation/UA\_Funds.pdf

ANYONE can contribute to these funds; an example of one with the broadest use and widest range of possible benefits is: "College of Liberal Arts" (fund# 20721)
