PhD Program in Indigenous Studies

ADMISSIONS APPLICATION CHECKLIST

☐ Application deadline: Applications must be received by March 1 for the following fall admission and October 1 for the following spring admission.

☐ Graduate application form and fee (http://www.uaf.edu/admissions/pdf/grad_app.pdf)

☐ Official transcripts of all previous college work (minimum 3.0 GPA). You do not need to submit transcripts from universities within the UA system as they are already on file.

☐ Letter of intent: Why applying, professional goals, research interests and specialty area
   Indigenous Knowledge □ Research □ Education □ Language □ Leadership □

☐ Professional vitae/resume

☐ Three letters of reference, including two professional references and one letter from a cultural/community organization

☐ GRE Scores: you are not required to submit GRE scores unless your undergraduate GPA is less than 3.0. If your undergraduate GPA is less than 3.0 then the University requires that GRE scores be submitted regardless of whether or not you have a graduate GPA of 3.0 or above.

☐ Outline financial plans/needs (http://www.uaf.edu/gradsch/grants-and-fellowships/)