

Academic Advising Resources

Academic advising is crucial to your educational success and required before registering for classes each semester. UAF has several options for advising; choose the one that best fits your needs. If you are in a certificate, associate, pre-major, occupational endorsement, or general studies program, you will want to contact one of the following:

Rural Student Services

Fairbanks Campus
200 Brooks Bldg.
www.uaf.edu/ruralss/
fyrss@uaf.edu

(907) 474-7871 or
(888) 478-1452

Serving students in all programs from rural Alaska and campus-based Alaska Native students.

Rural Campus Advising

Bristol Bay Campus, Dillingham
Chukchi Campus, Kotzebue
Interior-Aleutians Campus, Fairbanks
Kuskokwim Campus, Bethel
Northwest Campus, Nome

(800) 478-5109
(800) 478-3402
(888) 474-5207
(800) 478-5822
(800) 478-2202

Serving students enrolled in all programs offered at UAF's rural campuses.

UAF-Community and Technical College

Student Assistance & Advising Center
604 Barnette St.
<http://www.ctc.uaf.edu/>
uafctc@uaf.edu

(907) 455-2800 or
(877) 882-8827

Serving students in all associate programs (including AAS and AA General Program), certificate programs, occupational endorsement, and general advising.

If you have been admitted to a Bachelor's degree program in a specific major, you will want to speak to an advisor in your academic department. Remember, students are required to contact their advisor before registering for classes each semester.
