Subject: Extension to host firewood workshop

University of Alaska Fairbanks Cooperative Extension Service forester Glen Holt will offer pointers on cutting, curing and storing firewood from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15 at the North Pole City Hall.

Holt will also talk about woodcutting permits and where to cut wood on state and borough land, and will show a short tree-cutting and chainsaw maintenance DVD. Current firewood area maps will be available.

For more information, call Holt at 907-474-5271.
