This class is comprised of a series of weekly lectures covering a variety of geologic themes of current interest. Attending the weekly geology seminar is an excellent way to learn about recent developments in a variety of geologic disciplines. A list of the seminar topics and speakers for this semester is available at <http://www.uaf.edu/geology/FridaySeminar/seminarindex.html>.

Attendance: Since you are taking the seminar for credit, attendance is crucial. All students are required to attend at least 10 of the 13 weekly seminars. A sign-in sheet will be available every week after seminar. Please be sure to sign in!

Requirements

1. Attend at least 10 seminars.
2. For each of these seminars, summarize and/or critique the content of the seminar in a few paragraphs. Your summary should be approximately one page, and contain the following components: a) topic/research question(s), b) methodology c) main results/main conclusions. The style/language should be scientific writing. Summaries are due the week after the seminar.

Grades: Fail/Pass. You must attend 10 or more during the semester and submit 10 or more summaries.

Disability Services: The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. This class will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (203 WHIT, 474-7043) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities. Make sure to let the instructor know if there are concerns of this type.
