Amphibians of Alaska

Thursday, April 7th, 3-5 pm

Come discover what amphibians are, why they are important, and which ones live here in Alaska. Find out how you can help scientists study where frogs live just by listening for them in your neighborhood. Drop in to the Creativity Lab to create a frog craft and learn more about getting involved.

Included with museum admission.

Presented by Alaska Herpetological Society in cooperation with UA Museum of the North.