The Office of Grants and Contracts Administration (OGCA)

Presents:

Crack the Code: Making Sense of Acronyms

Wednesday, September 9, 2015
9:30 am – 10:30 am
O’Neill Building, Room 201
(Vera Alexander classroom)

Overview:
Are you in JEOPARDY of being overcome by acronyms? Acronyms have traditionally been a very important staple in the research administrator community, but they are often more complex to decode than a word puzzle on Wheel of Fortune. For research administrators new to the field, understanding acronyms can help you feel Smarter than a Fifth Grader and (hopefully) avoid a possible Family Feud with colleagues when they speak in this sometimes foreign language. The goal of this session will be to demystify a number of those acronyms that have become prevalent within the realm of research administration. Don’t be the Weakest Link as this is your Chance of a Lifetime to join us for this highly interactive session to advance your knowledge and understanding of our Lingo.

Learning Objectives:
- Participants will gain a basic understanding of some of the acronyms used in research administration.
- Participants will gain confidence in their knowledge and usage of these acronyms

Audience:
Faculty and staff new to the field of research administration.
