How Can Alaska Leverage Washington State’s Experience in Economic Diversification?

Speaker: Dr. Daniel Schwartz, U. Washington
Hosted by: Office of Intellectual Property and Commercialization

Dr. Schwartz will discuss Washington State’s highly successful efforts to deepen and diversify multiple sectors of its economy through a rich and effective collaboration network of intra/inter-university, state, federal and industry partnerships. His presentation will emphasize progress made in the clean technology sector as a specific case study, while also touching on other Alaska-relevant cluster areas such as maritime, military and defense, and forest products.
