Learning Outcomes

Professional Piloting  Associate of Applied Science Degree

Students will possess the skills and knowledge, to become competitive candidates for Alaskan, national, and international job openings and promotions within aviation and related fields.

Students will possess the skills and knowledge (in the areas of communication, critical thinking, computation, human relations, vocational experience, manipulative skills and a thorough understanding and appreciation for the Federal Aviation Regulations) necessary for professionals in aviation or closely related fields.

Students will score 80% or higher on their FAA written exams.