REMEMBER PEAR HARBOR

HOPE FOR WORLD PEACE

RAP SPONSORED EVENTS:
*All RAP SEMINAR: The last seminar for the Fall semester - Wednesday from 3:30 – 5:00 pm in 401 IARC. A lecture will be followed by questions and answers and pizza.

December 7 – Students who have engaged in internships will share their experiences and findings

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES/AWARDS:
*January 17, 2012 – Closing date for applications for the Margaret McNamara Memorial Fund Educational grants for Women from Developing Countries – Please go to www.mmmf-grants.org for information.

*January 20, 2012 – Application deadline - 2012 Emerging Public Policy Leadership Award (EPPLA) – Please go to Download a copy of the 2012 EPPLA announcement flyer at http://capwiz.com/aibs/utr/1/MHIVQWGTRS/HZROQWGULF/7639707131 for all information - Winners receive: A trip to Washington, DC, to participate in the Biological and Ecological Sciences Coalition (BESC) Congressional Visits Day; Policy and communications training, and information on federal science budgets and the legislative process; Meetings with Congressional policymakers to discuss the importance of federal investments in the biological sciences; A 1-year AIBS membership, including a subscription to the journal BioScience and a copy of "Communicating Science: A Primer for Working with the Media"; A certificate and membership in the EPPLA alumni network.

*February 1, 2012 – Deadline for application to DPDF Student Fellowship Competition - Providing early-stage graduate students with support to formulate effective doctoral dissertation proposals – Please go to http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/dpdf-fellowship/ for more information or contact Karen Mager, who received this grant, at karen.mager@alaska.edu.

CONFERENCES:

WORKSHOPS/LECTURES/CLASSES:
*New Class - "Cross-Cultural Filmmaking". The class is offered M/W from 10:30-12:30 and is geared towards students working in the social sciences and interested in the theoretical as well as technical aspects of working in cross-cultural film. See attached flier.

THIS AND THAT:
*Are you a beginning or advanced skier that wants to improve your classic technique? Come learn to save energy, go faster, and have more fun on skis! Katie Spellman, former NCAA skier, and Brian Young, White Mountains 100 maniac skier, would like to invite you to the 1st RAP ski clinic (Classic Style). We will meet at the ski hut on West Ridge at 4:00pm on Friday December 9th. Please join in even if you have never skied before. You can rent skis, if you don't have them, at Outdoor Adventures (for $5). Afterwards, we will retire to the pub for some much needed "debriefing."

*IAB Ski Mass 2011 will be Dec. 16. Sign-up and pictures outside 311 Irving I. What is it? Costumed ski race (sort of) around a short circuit on UAF trails. Who does it? You and two friends (and lots of others). What do I do? Sign-up today outside 311 Irving I, pick two teammates and a team name, make costumes, race, come to the IAB holiday part that night for the awards ceremony. Estimated start time is ~1:30 p.m. to accommodate classes. See attached flier.

Natural History Walks with Karen Mager— Tentative Dates for the Thursday Walks- January 26, February 23, March 29, May 3. Please stay tuned for details as received.