Important Dates

- Spring 2010 textbook pricing will be available on Nov. 20, 2009. Look for the "Spring 2010" file located at our website.
- Spring 2010 textbook mailout begins Jan. 4, 2010.

Buy Backs

If your professor is using the same book again next semester, we will buy those books back based on their condition.

Did you know your textbooks are included when you register?

For your convenience when you register for a Center for Distance Education Class UX or US section, or a College of Rural and Community Development class your textbooks will be attached at time of registration. If you DO NOT want your textbooks mailed automatically to you, please e-mail the bookstore at rycdebks@uaf.edu on the day you register and let us know not to ship textbooks to you.

What will I receive in my mailout?

- Textbooks
- Packing slip—When your package arrives, verify that everything on the packing list is in your box. If not, let us know immediately.
- Headsets or calculators (if required for your course)
- Pre-paid return label—This label should only be used for returns within the first 21 days. Any other use will be charged to your account.
- Documentation—You will receive documentation requested by the sponsoring campus, such as CDE coversheets, CRCD audioconference schedule, or library flyers. If returning your textbooks, you do not need to return these documents to the CRCD Bookstore.

Important facts about returns

- If you are returning materials to the CRCD Bookstore, please request a confirmation slip from the Post Office to accompany your package. We are not responsible for packages that do not make it to us. For approximately 42 cents (the cost of the confirmation) you can save yourself hundreds of dollars.
- All textbooks and materials must be mailed back to the CRCD Bookstore. Include your name, address, and student ID in each shipment by filling out the Textbook Return Form. Your account will not be credited until the CRCD Bookstore has inspected your returned materials.

Have you checked your address on UA Online?

- We ship to the address on file and we send your confirmation to your e-mail on file.
- Please help us serve you better and make sure your information is updated correctly.

Return policy

- Please check your packing slip or receipt for the current return policy.
