D. ESTIMATED IMPACT

WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.

None.

E. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS:

What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

The History department faculty members that offer the HIST 461 and HIST 463 have been contacted by email to discuss potential impacts to their courses.

F. IF MAJOR CHANGE - ASSESSMENT OF THE PROGRAM:

Description of the student learning outcomes assessment process.)

There has been no change to the outcomes assessment process -- all Russian Studies majors are still required to take RUSS 432, the capstone course for the program, and be evaluated for written and oral proficiency as well as understanding of Russian culture by faculty upon completion of this course. Exit surveys will still be administered to graduating Russian Studies majors to obtain input about student perception of the program.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize program/degree change applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. If you drop a course, is it because the material is covered elsewhere? Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the program is not compromised as a result.
The changes proposed would add one Russian film course and two History courses with significant material related to Russian history to the list of course options to obtain the Russian Studies degree. All three of these courses would provide valuable insight relevant to the Russian Studies curriculum, and their inclusion would give students more available options to complete degree requirements, which is particularly important among courses that are offered infrequently or as demand warrants.

Please note that upon contacting the affected History faculty, we learned that the department is petitioning to change the titles of HIST 463 and HIST 464, so the newly-proposed titles for those courses are reflected in our edits to the Russian Studies degree requirements.
