FLM F331 Directing Film/Video
(h)

3 Credits
Offered Fall Odd-numbered Years Spring

Introduction to the history, theory and basic concepts of film direction. Includes interpretative script analysis, creative visualization, conceptualization, use of space, working with actors and designers, and direction of short scenes and videos. Special fees apply. Prerequisites: THR F121; THR F215; or permission of instructor. Cross-listed with THR F331. (1+4)

8. IS THIS COURSE CURRENTLY CROSS-LISTED?
   YES/NO  YES  If Yes, DEPT  THR      NUMBER  331
   (Requires written notification of each department and dean involved. Attach a copy of written notification.)

9. GRADING SYSTEM: Specify only one
   LETTER:   X      PASS/FAIL:

10. ESTIMATED IMPACT
    WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.
    Prerequisites for this course reflect a previous version of this course which was entitled “Fundamentals of Film and Stage Directing”. The theatre courses will remain as recommended, but not required.

11. LIBRARY COLLECTIONS
    Have you contacted the library collection development officer (kljensen@alaska.edu, 474-6693) with regard to the adequacy of library/media collections, equipment, and services available for the proposed course? If so, give date of contact and resolution. If not, explain why not.
    Yes   X   A complete database of all Film related courses was
12. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS:
What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

Journalism will continue to be impacted as part of the interdisciplinary program in film studies.
Requiring that students take the FLM/JRN 290 course in Digital Video Editing may increase numbers in that course.

13. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

Increased enrollment in FLM/JRN 290 may require more frequent offerings of the course than only once a year. In years past, we have offered it every semester if it filled. This is both a positive and negative impact. Full courses should be seen as a positive thing, but meeting demand is a challenge on faculty and equipment. Enrollment numbers may decrease in THR 215 if it is pulled as a required course for film students.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. If you ask for a change in # of credits, explain why; are you increasing the amount of material covered in the class? If you drop a prerequisite, is it because the material is covered elsewhere? If course is changing to stacked (400/600), explain higher level of effort and performance required on part of students earning graduate credit. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the course is not compromised as a result.

Approximately six years ago, this course was split from a Fundamentals of Stage and Film Directing course into two courses, THR/FLM 331 became Directing Film/Video and a new course was developed, THR 332, Fundamentals of Stage Direction. The prerequisites do not appear to have been changed at that time. However, the need to change them has become clear as film students do not have the same need to take a dramatic literature course as a film studies course prior to enrolling in a directing class. Likewise, the Fundamentals of Acting course previously required (THR 121) is useful, but not a requirement.

To: Breehan Yauney <boyauney@alaska.edu>

Breehan,

Although I am out of town I reviewed all the theater courses last week and I can vote yes on each one. Also, if need be consider this my electronic signature on each course (ie. you can sign for me).

Best,

David

ATTACH COMPLETE SYLLABUS (as part of this application).
Note: The guidelines are online: http://www.uaf.edu/uafgov/faculty/cd/syllabus.html
The department and campus wide curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the items listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course change will be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):

1. Course information:
   - Title, number, credits, prerequisites, location, meeting time (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).

2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:
   - Name, office location, office hours, telephone, email address.

3. Course readings/materials:
   - Course textbook title, author, edition/publisher.
   - Supplementary readings (indicate whether required or recommended) and
   - any supplies required.

4. Course description:
   - Content of the course and how it fits into the broader curriculum;
   - Expected proficiencies required to undertake the course, if applicable.
   - Inclusion of catalog description is strongly recommended, and
   - Description in syllabus must be consistent with catalog course description.

5. Course Goals (general), and (see #6)

6. Student Learning Outcomes (more specific)

7. Instructional methods:
   - Describe the teaching techniques (eg: lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).

8. Course calendar:
   - A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g. it is not adequate to say “lab”. Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.

9. Course policies:
   - Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness, class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.

10. Evaluation:
    - Specify how students will be evaluated, what factors will be included, their relative value, and
    - how they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.)

11. Support Services:
    - Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.

12. Disabilities Services:
    - The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials.
    - State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (208 WHIT, 474-5655) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.”

B. Required Reading & Equipment

• TEXTBOOKS:
  o Film Directing Fundamentals. See Your Film Before Shooting
  o Directing Actors. Judith Weston
• All students will be required to use Blackboard online at http://classes.uaf.edu
• Any additional readings or films are on reserve at the Rasmuson Library for 2 hour check out or will be posted to Blackboard
• External hard drive I highly recommend that all video production students purchase their own external hard drive — at least 200GB (500GB recommended) for storing your video projects. The drive can be formatted PC or Mac or both, according to your preference. All video projects stored on the department’s computers will be deleted after finals week.

C. Suggested Reading,

• On Directing Film by David Mamet. Penguin Books. On reserve at the Library
• Secrets of Screen Acting by Patrick Tucker
• Top 100 Directors list http://film.guardian.co.uk/features/page/0,11456,1082823,00.html
• Great Directors list (use this for film papers)

D. Course description.
This course will be focused on the art and techniques of film directing -- a brief history of its development, functions of the director, and components of the art. A variety of directing styles will be examined with emphasis placed on developing directing skills while working with actors.
E. Goals.
- Students will gain knowledge of film directors from around the world, their work and techniques.
- Students will evolve their approach to filmmaking through script analysis, storyboarding, shot composition, working with actors, directing crew, and editing.
- Students will approach established films through scene direction.

F. Student Learning Outcomes.
- Students will learn various methods of preparing a film script.
- Students will practice previsualization methods of shots and camera placement.
- Students will understand setting up shots and scenes to match their vision of the film.
- Students will gain insight to cinema through directorial choices.
- Students will be able to articulate and defend directorial choices to actors, producers, and crew.

G. Instructional methods.
The class will meet for lecture and “hands-on” demonstration and practice of various techniques and exercises. Each member of the class will direct actors in a studio and location environment.

H. Course policies.
1. Attendance.
Attendance is mandatory. Students receive three points for every class attended, two points for each class arrived to less than 5 minutes late, one point for arriving more than 5 minutes late, and zero points for not attending. Class participation and preparation is essential for this course. Your classmates are counting on you!

Take responsibility for getting assignments or handouts from classmates. If you miss class for any reason, it’s your responsibility to arrange for a classmate to collect copies of any handouts, or to provide you with information on any assignments, activities, lecture materials, or dates changed. Studies have shown that students who attend class regularly and participate fully, find assignments and exams much easier and more meaningful, and (surprisingly) tend to get better grades than those who do not attend class regularly.

Be in class to earn a grade for an in-class activity or exercise. Students will be responsible for presenting and critiquing video material in class. Should you miss this portion, you will take a zero for the day. In-class activities and exercises may not be made up at a later date. In rare instances, students may have to miss class for a valid, university-sanctioned reason (in general, an absence is considered “official” when the student is: (A) participating in an approved field trip or other official UAF activity [e.g., athletics, music, theater arts], (B) confirmed under doctor’s orders, or (C) granted a leave of absence from UAF for reasonable cause by an academic dean or director). Except for medical emergencies, which require documentation, absences must be approved by the instructor prior to the class session that will be missed. Alternate assignments to make up for any in-class points will be given only for instructor-approved absences.

2. Blackboard/Assignments.
   - All students should access Blackboard at http://www.classes.uaf.edu. I do monitor who has accessed it when, so get online.
   - The “Course Documents” folder includes a copy of this syllabus, research materials, software, a link to schedule editing time, and instructional videos.
   - Assignments are posted in the Assignments folder, and organized by Week. You are responsible for all the assignments listed there. This syllabus is just an outline for class assignments and developments.
   - Staff Information includes my complete calendar so you can be proactive and make an appointment.

Cell Phones are helpful tools in film production, but should your cell phone ring during a shoot you will be asked to leave for the day and will receive zero points. If it happened on a working set, you would be fired! Texting is prohibited during class.

4. Equipment.

Each student crew is responsible for checking out and returning equipment (video cameras, tripods, microphones, etc.). Equipment is available for checkout from the Journalism Department in Bunnell. As instructor, I reserve the right to remove you from any group or restrict you from working with any equipment should there be abuse, misuse, or damage done. You will be billed for any equipment damaged.

5. Editing Labs.

The Alaska Media Center computer lab (Music 305) has four MacPros loaded with Final Cut Pro 7 (Studio 3) for you to use. You will need your polar express card to access the lab. Each entrance to the Lab is recorded, so should there be a problem we know who was in the lab when. Please sign-in and out when you use the computers (so I know how often you were really there editing). You can sign-up for no more than 3 hours of editing time per day. Should no one be using the computers, then you can continue to work. Sign up for your time online, http://film.uaf.genbook.com
If you are more than 15 minutes late, you lose your time to the first person waiting in line.

6. Actors.

   Directors will work in parallel with students in the FLM/THR 310 Acting for the camera class. Work will occasionally be jointly assigned for actors and directors.

7. Production Teams. Each student will be part of a production team, which will rotate responsibilities on the set from project to project. I recommend that teams work together to share information and experience. Each team will evaluate one another’s participation on a per project basis as part of the evaluation process. Should you have any issues with members of your team, please see me immediately.

Production Teams will include:
- Director
- Cinematographer
- Audio Engineer/ Gaffer
- Script supervisor/ Editor

8. Set-up.

   On Production days, all equipment must be set-up on location by the time class starts or you will be considered late. Production days will be determined ahead of time, and production teams should ensure that all equipment and set up needs are covered, particularly with a location shoot.

1. Evaluation of Work & Grades

   1. Values

      All work will be evaluated using a +/- grading system as follows.

      | Grade | Percentage |
      |-------|------------|
      | A+    | 100-97%    |
      | A     | 96-93%     |
      | B+    | 89-87%     |
      | B     | 86-83%     |
      | B-    | 82-80%     |
      | C+    | 79-77%     |
      | C     | 76-73%     |
      | C-    | 72-70%     |
      | D+    | 69-67%     |
      | D     | 66-63%     |
      | D-    | 62-60%     |

   Value of Assigned Work toward Final Grade:

   Attendance/participation & discussion ..................10 %
   Written assignments ........................................10 %
   Production Assignments ...................................40 %
   Pre-Production materials ............................... 15 %
   Production quality (raw footage) ..................... 15 %
   Post-Production/ DVD .................................... 10 %
Tests.................................................................................................................. 10%
Illustrated Scripts........................................................................................... 20%
Production team reviews .............................................................................. 10%

Total.................................................................................................................. 100%

2. Grading Written and Production Assignments:

The ability to communicate ideas clearly is the cornerstone of a great director. To demonstrate good directing, you should plan to organize your ideas clearly, use correct grammar, spell words and names correctly, and demonstrate that you’ve thoroughly conceptualized and edited your work. Effort put in to the pre-production will make up for problems during production and post.

All production assignments should be turned in with accompanying production material.
Screenplays, storyboards, production schedules, contact sheets, etc. It is the director’s responsibility to provide this information along with their final cut of the film.

It’s not “cheating” to ask for opinions and editing skills of others. Instead, the discussion is positive and can bring new insights to your work. The Writing Center (http://www.alaska.edu/english/studentresources/writing/) is available for students to develop their writing skills. Please visit or contact them for assistance. Gruening 801 or 474-5314.
For assistance with video production, please consult me, or your production team members.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS may include:
- film reviews and film director papers
- play critique from a directorial standpoint
- directorial concept paper/ director’s notes
- screenplays

PRE-PRODUCTION ASSIGNMENTS may include:
- storyboards
- photographic storyboards
- an illustrated script or prompt book including analysis of script, scenes, characters
- rehearsal schedule, ground-plan, storyboards, set/prop/light/costume
- designs, rehearsal diaries, etc.

PRODUCTION ASSIGNMENTS may include:
- in & out of class production shoots
- digital video assignments (raw video)

POST-PRODUCTION ASSIGNMENTS may include:
- digital editing assignments
- DVD production
- Graphics/Title/Special Effects

3. Late Papers/Assignments
ALL ASSIGNMENTS (written or performed) WILL BE SUBMITTED ON TIME OR BE PENALIZED 5% FOR EACH LATE DAY. LATE WORK FROM DIRECTORS IS NOT ACCEPTABLE. All written assignments, unless otherwise noted, are to be typed double-spaced and posted on blackboard in the Digital Dropbox.

J. Film Club. Students are encouraged to participate in the UIAF Student Film Club. Meetings take place the Third Thursday of each month in the Theatre Green Room.

K. Disability Services. The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and insures that UIAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (203 Will, 474-7043) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.
Course calendar. Tentative schedule. Readings should be completed by the date assigned. All assignments should be reviewed on blackboard where explicit instructions and resource materials will be posted.

Production Critique Required. You are required to see the UAF Production of the semester in the Lee H. Salisbury Theatre. Free tickets available for all enrolled students at UAF Theatre Box Office. www.uaf.edu/theatre/season. You are required to write one critique which must be submitted before the discussion in class.

Film Reviews: Three Film Reviews are due by Midterm and another Three reviews are due by Finals. Directors must be those included on the Great Director's list.

* Starred items are available on Reserve at Rasmussen Library
