Contacted Karen Jensen on [insert date]. Received e-mail that materials needed would fit into library budget.

20. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS
What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

English

21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

This course is designed to update the English major and minor so they are aligned with current national trends. This course will only impact the English department and will not duplicate offerings in other units.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

This course forms part of a major revision to the English undergraduate 400 level curriculum. It is designed to better utilize the expertise of English department faculty and to incorporate current disciplinary developments into the English Department curriculum. Both departmentally and institutionally, the quality of UAF education will increase with the addition of this course.

ATTACH COMPLETE SYLLABUS (as part of this application).

Note: The guidelines are online: http://www.uaf.edu/uafgov/faculty/cd/syllabus.html
The department and campus wide curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the items listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course change will be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):

1. Course information:
   - Title, number, credits, prerequisites, location, meeting time (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).
   - Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:
     - Name, office location, office hours, telephone, email address.
   - Course readings/materials:
     - Course textbook title, author, edition/publisher.
     - Supplementary readings (indicate whether required or recommended) and
     - Any supplies required.

2. Course description:
   - Content of the course and how it fits into the broader curriculum;
   - Expected proficiencies required to undertake the course, if applicable.
   - Inclusion of catalog description is strongly recommended, and
   - Description in syllabus must be consistent with catalog course description.

3. Course Goals (general), and (see #6)

4. Student Learning Outcomes (more specific)

5. Instructional methods:
   - Describe the teaching techniques (eg: lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).

6. Course calendar:
   - A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g. it is not adequate to say “lab”.
Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.

7. Course policies:
   - Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness,
class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.

8. Evaluation:
   - Specify how students will be evaluated, what factors will be included, their relative value, and
   - How they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.)

9. Support Services:
   - Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.

10. Disabilities Services:
    The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials.
    - State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (208 WHTT, 474-5655) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities."

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE, COURSE GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

This course is intended to be an intensive study of modern and postmodern American literature as it emerges into the 21st century. This semester we will explore some of the major works of the 20th century but focus on the theme of alienation and urban landscape. Through both careful analysis of the works themselves and reading into the contemporary literary theory and criticism, we will identify stylistic, narrative and thematic aspects of these works, but we will also look at broader topics of cultural studies. Postcolonial thought and border theory will be a starting point, but we will urban semiology and multiculturalism.

Course goals include familiarizing students with all the major works of this period while placing them in an interactive discourse with culture and the arts. Students will become acquainted with some of the most important currents of 20th century thought. By the end of the course, students should be able to identify and discuss stylistic, narrative and thematic aspects of 20th and 21st century American literature and be able to incorporate modern critical theory in their discussion and in a research essay.

Prerequisites are COMM 131 or COMM 141 and ENGL 211X or 213X; or permission of the instructor

REQUIRED TEXTS

- Ralph Ellison, The Invisible Man
- N. Scott Momaday, House Made of Dawn
- Short Stories by Hemmingway, Fitzgerald, Cheever, Anderson, Steinbeck and others as listed in the syllabus. American Short Story Reader. Ed. Kenneth Roper
- A Street Car Named Desire, Tennessee Williams
• Semiology and the Urban, Roland Barthes
• Urban Landscape and American Literature, Gloria Bainbridge
• Additional readings can be found on e-reserve

Required texts are available at the UAF bookstore.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Students will write a short (3-4 page) essay and a 12-15 page research paper. Other requirements include

• Passing a final examination
• Complete successful oral presentations
• Completing all assigned readings
• Vigorously participating in class discussions.

All work must be completed to receive credit for the course. You will receive feedback from me on all written work for this course as well as the opportunity to revise. The research paper will be developed in stages in consultation with me, and there will be at least one personal conference during office hours devoted to your writing.

IMPORTANT MATTERS

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Regular attendance is crucial. Every absence over 4 will cause your final grade to be lowered by 3 points. Your 4 non-penalized absences should be used for personal illness, family illness, travel, automobile problems, etc. Please do not use all your absences early in the semester, as I do not distinguish between excused and unexcused absences.

If you do miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact someone in the class to find out what you missed.

Students are expected to be in class on time. Tardiness of 10 minutes or more will be counted as half an absence. Please allow extra time for road delays and/or parking problems.

CLASS PRESENTATION

There will be 2 presentation by each student. Presentation #1 must be at least 5 minutes. You will be responsible for introducing one of the writers we will be discussing. You are expected to review the writer's biography, list major work and identify any particular schools of literary thought that are identified with the writer. You should seek out interviews and have at least one quote from the writer. The second presentation is on critical reading to be assigned from e-reserve. It must be 8-10 minutes and include a question and answer session. You will receive feedback from me on both presentations.
CLASS RULES

Students should not leave class except in the case of an emergency.

Any student found doing work for another class while class is in session will be asked to leave and will receive an absence for the day.

Also, cell phones should be turned off and put away before class begins.

GRADING CRITERIA

Grading for this class will follow UAF guidelines:

A = An honor grade, indicates originality, a thorough mastery of the subject, and the satisfactory completion of more work than is regularly required
B = Indicates outstanding ability above the average level of performance
C = Indicates a satisfactory or average level of performance
D = The lowest passing grade, indicates work of below average quality and performance
F = Indicates failure to meet lowest standards

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism means using someone else's words or ideas and attempting to pass them off as your own—this includes material taken from the Internet. Students should not utilize secondary sources in written assignments unless specifically instructed; moreover, not completely documenting secondary sources constitutes plagiarism. Plagiarism is an extremely serious offense, and any student caught plagiarizing will automatically and irrevocably receive a failing grade in the course. Academic dishonesty is easily detected and easy to avoid. If you have any questions or doubts, see me before turning in the paper in question, as misunderstanding does not constitute a valid excuse.

LATE PAPERS

Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date designated on the course schedule. Late papers are only allowed with 48 hours notice and under extraordinary circumstances; papers must be turned in no later than one week after they were due to receive credit on the assignment. The research essay, due the final day of class, will not be allowed an extension.

STUDY GUIDES AND EXTRA-CREDIT

I do not give study guides nor offer extra-credit assignments.

DISABILITY SERVICES

The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. Students with a physical or learning disability who may need academic accommodations should contact Mary Matthews in the Office of Disabilities Services (203 WHIT, 474-7043, TTY 474-7045). You will need to provide documentation of your disability. I will work with the Office of Disability Services to make the appropriate accommodation.
