Course Description
The course provides a foundational perspective as to how our present federal emergency management and homeland security structure emerged with emphasis placed on the characteristics, functions, and resources of its integrated systems. This course additionally focuses on the principles and practices of homeland security and emergency management at the local, state and federal levels.

Course Objectives
Upon completion of the course students should have a firm grasp of homeland security & emergency management processes and issues. Emphasis will be placed on students developing a greater understanding of the complexities of the Department of Homeland Security and the Federal Emergency Management Agency and those skill sets required to integrate the major supporting services (health, fire, law enforcement, Hazmat etc.) Students will leave the course with a strong understanding of the terminology used by emergency managers.

Instructional Method
The course format includes lecture, class discussions, reading assignments, internet-based Blackboard assignments, guest speakers, and a tabletop/functional EOC exercise (depending upon class size and EOC availability).

Recommended preparation: 2 hours weekly beyond class instruction
Quizzes will account for 10% of the overall grade.  (True-False, Fill in the blank, Multiple choice, Short answer)

A Mid Term will account for 25%.  (Essay)

Weekly Reviews/Discussion Management 15%.  (Students are required to turn in a review of the assigned weekly readings at the beginning of each class.  The review is to be two pages (typed), font 11—double spaced.  Additionally, students will be prepared to lead discussions/contribute to the lecture.

Blackboard will be used to cover special topic and case study presentations (10%) for use during the course.  Each student team will be responsible for developing their own special topic, soliciting input from other students via Blackboard (interest in the topic, relevance to the course etc.), and for the development of a 15 minute presentation via power point or other suitable delivery tool.

A Group Project consisting of both a table top exercise and a functional exercise will constitute 15% of the class.

A Final will account for the remaining 25% of the overall grade.  (Essay)

Quizzes = 10%
Mid Term = 25%
Weekly Reviews/Discussion Management (Participation) = 15%
Special Topics Presentation = 10%
Group Project Table Top and Functional Exercise = 15%
Final = 25%

A= 90-100%
B= 80-89%
C= 70-79%
D= 60-69%
F= 59% or less

Textbooks - Required

Homeland Security: An Introduction to Principles and Practice / Charles P. Nemeth. 2010 (Hardcover) Taylor & Francis Group
Additional Reading

Selected articles as needed will be posted either on Blackboard or provided in class.

Course Policies

Students are expected to attend and participate in both the class and discussions generated. Students will be penalized for the late submission of class assignments and for non—attendance (outside of emergency or mutually agreed upon circumstances).

Plagiarism on assignments and cheating on exams will not be tolerated. Students caught plagiarizing or cheating will be disciplined according to the appropriate University of Alaska guidelines.

Support Services:

Students are encouraged to utilize the UAF Writing Center in 801 Gruening, ph 474-5314 as needed to assist in the development and refinement of their written products. Please contact me as required should you need to contact other subject matter support services relevant to the development of your leadership or classroom projects/topics.

Students with Disabilities:

Students with learning or other disabilities who may need classroom accommodations are encouraged to make an appointment with the Office of Disability Services (Phone # 474-7043). Please inform me of your needs and if I need to meet with the Office of Disability Services to provide the appropriate accommodations and support to assist you in meeting the goals of the course.
