Justification: Indicate why the course can be repeated (for example, the course follows a different theme each time).

How many times may the course be repeated for credit?

If the course can be repeated with variable credit, what is the maximum number of credit hours that may be earned for this course?

10. ESTIMATED IMPACT

WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.

None.

11. LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Have you contacted the library collection development officer (kljensen@alaska.edu, 474-6695) with regard to the adequacy of library/media collections, equipment, and services available for the proposed course? If so, give date of contact and resolution. If not, explain why not.

No  X  Yes

Covers material already addressed in current courses (HIST 463 and 464)

12. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS:

What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?

Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

Dropping of material on earlier period will not impact History or Northern Studies.

13. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS

Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

By reducing period under examination, students will receive a better grounding in modern Russian history than they had previously. Narrower chronological focus will also allow inclusion of more material on Siberian history, which is of particular interest to Northern Studies students. Dropping HIST 664 is part of effort to remove unused CLA courses from catalog.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. If you ask for a change in # of credits, explain why; are you increasing the amount of material covered in the class? If you drop a prerequisite, is it because the material is covered elsewhere? If course is changing to stacked (400/600), explain higher level of effort and performance required on part of students earning graduate credit. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the course is not compromised as a result.

This is part of a reperiodization of the Russian history curriculum, in conjunction with changes to HIST 464/663. As currently constituted, the course covers too broad an historical period for a course at this level. Adjusting the period covered will allow for a richer and more in-depth examination of this period, and will better serve students. This will also bring the course into line with the standard periodization of Russian history now used at most American colleges and Universities, allowing for a better selection of textbooks. Change in pre-requisites brings course into line with other cross-listed HIST/NORS graduate courses.
