4. To be CROSS LISTED?

- Yes/No

(Requires approval of both departments and deans involved. Add lines at end of form for additional required signatures.)

5. To be STACKED?

- Yes/No

Stacked course applications are reviewed by the (Undergraduate) Curricular Review Committee and by the Graduate Academic and Advising Committee. Creating two different syllabi—undergraduate and graduate versions—will help emphasize the different qualities of what are supposed to be two different courses. The committees will determine: 1) whether the two versions are sufficiently different (i.e. is there undergraduate and graduate level content being offered); 2) are undergraduates being overtaxed?; 3) are graduate students being undertaxed? In this context, the committees are looking out for the interests of the students taking the course. Typically, if either committee has qualms, they both do. Students will be able to fulfill their piano requirements in a more timely and structured fashion. There do not seem to be any negative impacts.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

The music department’s piano proficiency requirement is currently being met by one class, MUS F153. The class syllabus has four sections, each section designed to be completed in one semester, but students can complete up to four sections in one semester. The course is graded A/F. To receive an A, a student must perfectly perform his or her required section(s) on one of two testing dates in a jury situation.

The current curriculum is not serving the students. Materials are not presented in a gradual, linear fashion. Each section is comprised of one skill – scales/chord progressions, patriotic songs, repertoire and sight-reading. The students have been memorizing the materials in a “rote memorization” fashion, with little understanding of what they are playing. The patriotic songs are not pertinent, the sight-reading too... difficulty and not enough actual piano skills are being learned. Students from all four sections are together in one class, thus making it difficult to actually teach. Many students are not completely their recitals on time and thus are not graduating in four years. Also, because the class can be repeated for credit, F’s count towards the students’ GPA.

The proposed 3 semester curriculum (MUS 152, 153 and 154) addresses these deficiencies by presenting keyboard skills, sight reading, harmonization and transposition in a continuous, structured fashion over three consecutive semesters using one textbook. The course will be evaluated with letter grades, an average of daily assignments, quizzes, mid-term and a final. This eliminated the possibility of failing because of performance nerves. Offering each section one time will eliminate the accumulation of F’s affecting students’ GPAs. The best result of this revised curriculum will be higher level of piano skills demonstrated by students. Students will pass functional piano in a timely fashion, thus graduating on a four year schedule.

RE: Fee Proposals for MUS F152 and MUS F154

I am requesting that we attach a $150 fee to each of these new courses to cover upkeep on the pianos that are used by the students. Just one tuning for one piano is $145.00. We have nine pianos that must be kept in tune for student practice.

Hilley/Olson. Music for the Developing Musician, 6th edition

Catalog Description
Emphasis on upper-intermediate keyboard performance skills, sight-reading, harmonization and transposition. Course may not be audited. Prerequisites: MUS 153. For music majors only, permission of instructor. (1+0)

Course Goals
MUS 154 Functional Piano is a course designed to:
- Along with MUS 152 and MUS153, fulfill the UAF piano proficiency requirement.
- Develop intermediate keyboard skills - technique/scales, sight-reading, chord progressions, harmonization, transposition, ensemble playing and repertoire - in a gradual and linear fashion.

Student Learning Outcomes
- You will read in 3-part and 4-part open score and chorale style.
- You will learn F, Bb and Eb Major scales and the remaining minor scales. Scales will be practiced in rhythms.
- Exposure to 7th chords, augmented 6th chords, modal harmonization, lead sheet notation, and borrowed chords.
- You will harmonize melodies using non-root chords and secondary dominants.
- You will play and perform intermediate piano repertoire.
Course Policies

MUS 154 meets one hour per week in Room 225 of the Music Department. This is a lecture class and daily practice is expected to master weekly assignments given each class. We will be moving rapidly through the material and attendance is necessary to master the skills presented each week. As we meet only one hour per week, no absence will be considered excused. Four absences will result in the lowering of a final grade by one letter, five absences two letter grades and more than this will result in you not passing the class.

Each weekly assignment will be graded (+) or (-). Quizzes will be given at least four times per semester and graded with a letter grade. There will also be a graded Mid-term and Final. All dates for the quizzes, Mid-term and Final are listed in the syllabus. No tests or quizzes will be made up without prior arrangements with me via phone or internet. Daily assignments cannot be made up.

This is a required course for music majors, therefore a grade of D+ or lower will result in you having to retake the class.

Grading and Evaluation

Your grade for the course will be determined as follows:

25% Final Exam
25% Mid-term
25% Quizzes (4)
25% Daily Assignments

A+ = 100-98%   A = 97-94%   A- = 93-90%   B+ = 89-88%   B = 87-84%   B- = 83-80%   C+ = 79-78%
C = 77-74%   C- = 73-70%   D+ = 69-68%   D = 67-64%   D- = 63-60%   F = Below 60%

The Office of Disabilities Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. Your instructor will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (208 WHIT, 474-5655) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

Please be courteous to your classmates and instructor – silence your phone when arriving to class.
