18. ESTIMATED IMPACT
WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.

No impact will result in offering this course.

19. LIBRARY COLLECTIONS
Have you contacted the library collection development officer (kljensen@alaska.edu, 474-6695) with regard to the adequacy of library/media collections, equipment, and services available for the proposed course? If so, give date of contact and resolution. If not, explain why not.

No ☒ Yes ☐ No library materials are needed.

20. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS
What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

The Foreign Language Department will be positively impacted by offering this course as it will act as a feeder to the Japanese program at UAF. The Chair of the Japanese Program at UAF has been actively involved in the creation of this course.

21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

There is a positive impact from this course as a greater depth of interest is cultivated in community members taking this course, which will result in a higher number of students enrolled in the Japanese Program offered by the UAF Department of Foreign Languages.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

This course provides a greater depth of exploration into Japanese culture and conversational language. Our community has requested a two-year series of this type for Japanese. By bringing the university-level exploration of Japanese culture and conversational language to the two-year level, there is increased interest in pursuing a more intense study of the Japanese language toward a 4-year degree major or minor. For those community members using this course as a way to study before travel, the two-year cycle also gives them a better body of knowledge to work from with regards to cultural norms and expectations as well as functional language.

ATTACH COMPLETE SYLLABUS (as part of this application). Note: The guidelines are online:
http://www.uaf.edu/uaegov/faculty-senate/curriculum/course-degree-procedures/uaf-syllabus-requirements/
The Faculty Senate curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the item listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course (or changes to it may be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):
1. Course information:
   □ Title, □ number, □ credits, □ prerequisites, □ location, □ meeting time
   (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).
2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:
   □ Name, □ office location, □ office hours, □ telephone, □ email address.
3. Course readings/materials:
   □ Course textbook title, □ author, □ edition/publisher.
   □ Supplementary readings (indicate whether □ required or □ recommended) and □ any supplies required.
4. Course description:
   □ Content of the course and how it fits into the broader curriculum;
   □ Expected proficiencies required to undertake the course, if applicable.
   □ Inclusion of catalog description is strongly recommended, and □ Description in syllabus must be consistent with catalog course description.
5. □ Course Goals (general), and (see #6)
6. □ Student Learning Outcomes (more specific)
7. Instructional methods:
   □ Describe the teaching techniques (e.g., lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).
8. Course calendar:
   □ A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g., it is not adequate to say "lab". Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.
9. Course policies:
   □ Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness, class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.
10. Evaluation:
   □ Specify how students will be evaluated, □ what factors will be included, □ their relative value, and □ how they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.) □ Publicize UAF regulations with regard to the grades of "C" and below as applicable to this course. (Not required in the syllabus, but may be a convenient way to publicize this.) Faculty Senate Meeting #171:
   http://www.uaf.edu/uaegov/faculty-senate/meetings/2010-2011-meetings/#171
11. Support Services:
   □ Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.
12. Disabilities Services:
   The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials.
   □ State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (208 WHITAKER BLDG, 474-5655) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

JPN F100C: Japanese Culture and Conversation IIA
3.0 credits
Fall 2012

Instructor: Michiyo Nagaoka
Office Hours: To be arranged
Class Time: MWF 1:00-2:00
Class Location: TBA
      - workbook to Accompany Genki I, 2000

Course Description: This is the first semester course of second-year Japanese exploration of culture and conversation, and requires completion of JPN F100B with a grade of C or better. The course will cover chapters 7 through 9 of the textbook Genki I and will offer an introduction into Japanese language and culture. It will help students acquire basic skills and build a solid foundation for future development of language skills in Japanese.

This class does not meet Perspectives on the Human Condition requirements, or Foreign Language major or minor requirements.

Course Goals: The course aims to
- increase comfort in reading and writing of hiragana and katakana.
- develop language competence and performance by building speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills
- foster effective communication
- explore aspects of Japanese cultures and traditions.

Learning Outcomes: Students will learn hiragana, katakana and approximately 30 frequently-used kanji in JPN F100C. They will be comfortable with both reading and writing of them. Students will learn to understand, recognize, and use appropriately a vocabulary of approximately 500 words and expressions, and a high number of basic sentence patterns and grammatical notions. Students will be able to use the sentence structures to greet friends, describe people and surroundings, and engage in basic conversations about family members, class schedules, time, price, food, preferences, and hobbies. Students will be required to write short passages and expected to practice speaking Japanese both in and outside of class. Speaking and participating actively in class, completing homework assignments on time, and practicing Japanese on a regular basis are essential to the success in this class!

Course Methods: The course offers a balanced integrated approach with a focus on language use in context and cultural exploration.
- All aspects of language learning (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) will receive equal attention.
- Classroom instruction
  1. Present new vocabulary and sentence patterns from 3 chapters in the textbook. Supplemental materials will be distributed as needed.
  2. Analyze sentence structures with emphasis on usage and their practical applications.
  3. Practice oral exercises with every student during classroom time.
- Audio and video materials will be used to aid the development of listening skills.
- Homework will involve textbook readings, workbook assignments, and homework handouts. Homework is assigned daily. The students will also be required to write short passages and present them orally in class.
- Quizzes will be given weekly except on test days. There will be three chapter tests. Make-up quizzes will only be given with prearranged approval from instructor or a note from a doctor. Prearranged approval can be obtained by contacting the instructor prior to the quiz via email or telephone.

Course Policies:
- Attendance and punctuality are required. Any absence will require a note from a doctor/school or an email report. Unexcused absences will affect the course grade. Six or more absences will result in a grade of "F" for the course.
- Deadlines are mandatory and apply to everyone. Late assignments will be accepted only with the approval of the instructor.
- Classroom participation and attendance will be evaluated and counted as part of the final grade.

Evaluation:
- Participation: 15%
- Homework: 20%
- Quizzes: 15%
- Chapter Tests (3 chapters – paper exam & oral exam): 30%
- Final Exam/Oral Presentation: 20%

Grading percentages for the course will be as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

Folder:
You will need to acquire a three-ring folder and keep your handouts, quizzes, and your work in it. Your portfolio will be evaluated at the end of a semester, and is part of your participation grade.

Homework:
Use a pencil for your homework. Late homework will not be accepted unless permission given by the instructor. If class is missed for an excused reason, homework information can be obtained from the instructor via email or telephone.

Books:
Books are required for class each day.

Plagiarism:
UAF students are subject to the Student Code of Conduct. The work that you turn in must be your own. Work that is copied will result in a failing grade for that assignment. More than one instance of plagiarism will result in a failing grade for the course.
No food:
Unless food is brought by the teacher, it will not be allowed in class. You will be busy speaking during class!

Words of Encouragement:
According to data collected by the United States Department of Defense, among the languages surveyed Japanese is classified as a Group IV language, one of five of the most difficult and time consuming languages to gain proficiency in. However, I have witnessed over the years that everyday’s work and practice make a person a good speaker of Japanese as a foreign language with strong communication skills. Be prepared to study for this course and let’s enjoy speaking Japanese!!

Disabilities Accommodation:

UAF has a Disability Services office that operates in conjunction with the UAF Community and Technical College. Disability Services, located in room 208 of the Whitaker Building, provides academic accommodations to enrolled students who are identified as being eligible for these services.

If you believe you are eligible, please visit http://www.uaf.edu/disability on the web or contact CTC’s student Assistance and Advising Center (455-2800). You can also contact Disability Services on the Fairbanks Campus at (907) 474-5655, uaf-disabilityservices@alaska.edu
