21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

There are no negative impacts on any other programs. The addition of the course will only strengthen the RECR program.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

We have a demand for a cross-section of dance courses. Contemporary is a popular style that is not currently represented in our curriculum.

ATTACH COMPLETE SYLLABUS (as part of this application). Note: The guidelines are online: http://www.uaf.edu/uafgov/faculty-senate/curriculum/course-degree-procedures/uaf-syllabus-requirements/
The Faculty Senate curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the item listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course (or changes to it) may be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):

1. Course Information:
   - Title, □ number, □ credits, □ prerequisites, □ location, □ meeting time (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).

2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) Information:
   - □ Name, □ office location, □ office hours, □ telephone, □ email address.

3. Course Readings/Materials:
   - □ Course textbook title, □ author, □ edition/publisher.
   - □ Supplementary readings (indicate whether □ required or □ recommended) and □ any supplies required.

4. Course Description:
   - □ Content of the course and how it fits into the broader curriculum;
   - □ Expected proficiencies required to undertake the course, if applicable.
   - □ Inclusion of catalog description is strongly recommended, and
   - □ Description in syllabus must be consistent with catalog course description.

5. □ Course Goals (general), and (see #6)

6. □ Student Learning Outcomes (more specific)

7. Instructional Methods:
   - □ Describe the teaching techniques (e.g. lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).

8. Course Calendar:
   - □ A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g. it is not adequate to say "lab". Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.

9. Course Policies:
   - □ Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness, class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.

10. Evaluation:
    - □ Specify how students will be evaluated, □ what factors will be included, □ their relative value, and □ how they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.) □ Publicize UAF regulations with regard to the grades of "C" and below as applicable to this course. (Not required in the syllabus, but may be a convenient way to publicize this.) Faculty Senate Meeting #171: http://www.uaf.edu/uafgov/faculty-senate/meetings/2010-2011-meetings/#171

11. Support Services:
    - □ Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.

12. Disabilities Services:
    - The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials.
    - □ State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (208 WHITAKER BLDG, 474-5655) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Contemporary dance is an opportunity for students to explore contemporary dance movement, and gain strength and flexibility to improve their ability to dance. Designed to introduce students to contemporary dance, the course will be a combination of stretching, conditioning, and dancing. Students will be expected to demonstrate an understanding of basic contemporary dance principles and interpretation upon completion.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF GOALS:
To gain an understanding of the body movements and choreographic styles of contemporary dance, as well as an understanding of one’s physical self as a dancer.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES/OBJECTIVES:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will:
- Gain an understanding of the history and evolution from social dance to performance art
- Learn a dance choreography
- Learn basic dance vocabulary
- Demonstrate correct dance posture
- Gain a greater sense and range of movement specific to your body
- Improve coordination and body/spatial awareness
INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:
This is a demonstrative dance course. The instructor will provide clear direction for warm ups and choreography, and during the class time, give corrections as needed.

COURSE CALENDAR:
Week 1 - Introductions, syllabus review, and initial assessment.
Week 2 - Basic principles and warm up exercises introduced.
Week 3 - Paper topics assigned/ lab focus on positions of the feet & posture placement.

Week 15 - Final presentations/ review/ catch-up.
Course Calendar is tentative and subject to change

*All papers and make-up assignments must be completed and turned in no later than the end of class time on the last day of classes.

COURSE POLICIES:
Students must be present on time and in appropriate dance attire. This is a pass/fail course, and any more than 7 absences will result in a failing grade.

EVALUATION:
Attendance: Attendance is required for all classes. More than 7 absences will result in a failing grade for the semester. If you must miss a class, notify the instructor prior to class meeting and an opportunity for make-up activity will be given. All make-up assignments must be completed prior to the last week of classes.

Participation: Classes will begin and end on time. Students arriving more than 15 minutes late must observe and take notes to be turned in at the end of class rather than participate in class. If observation notes are not turned in at the end of class it will count as an absence.

Lab work - Students will be given a lab grade for every class. Full credit is given only for complete participation in class. Observing students will receive half credit for that day’s lab work.
Written assignment - Choreographer's biography
During the course of the semester students will be assigned a specific choreographer or dance company to research. A two page double spaced paper about the assigned topic is due no later than the last week of classes.

| Attendance/Participation based on lab grade average: | 75 points |
| Written Assignment: | 25 points |
| Total Points: | 100 points |

(As the course is Pass/Fail, a minimum of 70 total points is required to pass the course)

DISABILITIES SERVICES:
The Office of Disabilities Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. If you have specific physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities and require reasonable accommodations, please let me know early in the semester so that your learning needs may be appropriately met. You will need to provide documentation of your disability to Disability Services in room 208 of the Whitaker Building (907-474-5655 | uaf-disabilityservices@alaska.edu) and request a letter of accommodation.
