A. Adopt Staff Council #184 Agenda, Wednesday, 14 November 2007.

B. Approve Staff Council Minutes #183 Friday, 19 October 2007.

2. OFFICER REPORTS

A. Kayt Sunwood, President, Staff Council.

Kayt Sunwood reported to Council members that she and Barbara Oleson represent staff on the statewide healthcare committee. Kayt reported that recent committee discussions were focused towards improving the healthcare plan. Kayt stated that the estimated cost of the proposed plan is not currently available and that union negotiations are still in progress. Kayt Sunwood informed the group that healthcare planning sessions are scheduled to begin in December. Kayt Sunwood informed the groups that the proposed healthcare plan is suppose to be implemented in four phases, and that the Fairbanks’ campus is slated to be added after June 2008, if by that time the program is proven to be worth continuing. Kayt Sunwood reported that she will attend a meeting to discuss the NESSE survey and what should be done for student success and engagement. Kayt Sunwood informed Council members about her efforts to recruit staff members to serve on Staff Council. Kayt Sunwood welcomed two new Council members that she personally recruited Anne Marie Nacke, unit 9 and Paul Landen, unit 8.

B. Juella Sparks, President-Elect, Staff Council.

Juella Sparks stated that the Bunnell House Advisory Committee was asked to create a position statement on the need for childcare. Juella Sparks stated that the Staff Affairs committee will be asked to help draft the position statement. She reported that Rich Caufield, Director, TVC, is supportive of opening the Bunnell House during summer months if funding can be found. Juella Sparks reported that UA governance groups are joining efforts to make retiree benefits more consistent. Juella Sparks stated that it is difficult to ask to lower the retiree tuition age especially now due to the expected cost increase of healthcare.

3. PUBLIC COMMENT

No public comment.

4. GUESTS

A. Anne Sakumoto, Director, Faculty Training and Development

Anne Sakamoto reminded Council members that the SkillSoft program would be available for two more weeks. Anne Sakamoto noted that most users were interested in Excel 2003 and 2007 courses. She reported that she attended a meeting to discuss career development plans as outlined in the UA regulations. Anne Sakamoto encouraged Council members to complete the SkillSoft survey by November 16 and shared statistics about the number of users and courses completed.

B. Luke Hopkins, North Campus Manager: Campus Trails.

Luke Hopkins gave Council members an overview of the north campus plan; he informed the group that the plan is available online at http://www.uaf.edu/mastplan/North_Campus/NCMP1_intro+ch_1.pdf.

Martin Klein stated that the trails are well used. Anne Marie Nacke stated that there are trail signage problems that need correcting.

5. GOVERNANCE REPORTS

A. Jon Genetti, President, Faculty Senate.

John Genetti commented about the ongoing union negotiations concerning increasing the cost of healthcare. He stated that the current industry standard is 90/10, but that the university is moving towards an 80/20 split. Jon Genetti stated that President Hamilton commented at a recent retreat that students lacking math skills are not as successful in college and recommended that math skill boot camps be given during the summer. Jon Genetti stated that math skills are the best predictor of who is going to graduate, but how is throwing students in a math boot camp going to improve their success in math. Jon Genetti stated that anybody at UA is welcome to propose ideas. Jon Genetti reported that an external review of statewide administration is currently in progress and that he is a member along with three faculty members from each MAU. Ro Bailey, UAF VCAS, Buck Sharpton, VCR, and UAA and UAS chancellors, and other administrators are also members of the advisory group. The main purpose of the group is to evaluate the efficiency, effectiveness, location, and utility of current system offices, functions, and initiatives. At the end of the review period, they will present a report with recommendations to President Hamilton.

Jon Genetti reported that user ID numbers should be treated as social security numbers and kept confidential. Mary Pat Boger asked why students still have to use social security numbers. Ashley Munro replied for tax purposes. Jackie Alleyne McCants added that the Financial Aid office uses social security numbers on student loan applications. Jon Genetti stated that the user ID numbers is mainly a faculty issue, as the numbers are used to post student grades.

B. Jake Hamburg, President, ASUAF.
