APRIL 2008

CHAPTER I

Purview

The University of Alaska Fairbanks document, “Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” supplements the Board of Regents (BOR) policies and describes the purpose, conditions, eligibility, and other specifications relating to the evaluation of faculty at the University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF). Contained herein are regulations and procedures to guide the evaluation processes and to identify the bodies of review appropriate for the university.

The university, through the UAF Faculty Senate, may change or amend these regulations and procedures from time to time and will provide adequate notice in making changes and amendments.
These regulations shall apply to all of the units within the University of Alaska Fairbanks, except in so far as extant collective bargaining agreements apply otherwise.

The provost is responsible for coordination and implementation of matters relating to procedures stated herein.

CHAPTER II

Initial Appointment of Faculty

A. Criteria for Initial Appointment
Minimum degree, experience and performance requirements are set forth in “UAF Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” Chapter IV. A MASTER’S DEGREE IN LIBRARY SCIENCE (MLS) OR EQUIVALENT FROM AN AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (ALA) ACCREDITED PROGRAM IS THE RECOGNIZED QUALIFICATION FOR ACADEMIC LIBRARIANS. IN SOME CIRCUMSTANCES, A MASTER’S OR PHD IN A SPECIFIED FIELD MAY SERVE AS AN ALTERNATIVE. Exceptions to these requirements for initial placement in academic rank or special academic rank positions shall be submitted to the chancellor or chancellor’s designee for approval prior to a final selection decision.

B. Academic Titles
Academic titles must reflect the discipline in which the faculty are appointed.

C. Process for Appointment of Faculty with Academic Rank Deans of schools and colleges, and directors when appropriate, in conjunction with the faculty in a unit, shall observe procedures for advertisement, review, and selection of candidates to fill any vacant faculty position. These procedures are set by UAF Human Resources and the Campus Diversity and Compliance (AA/EEO) office and shall provide for participation in hiring by faculty and administrators as a unit.

D. Process for Appointment of Faculty with Special Academic Rank Deans and/or directors, in conjunction with the faculty in a unit, shall establish procedures for advertisement, review, and selection of candidates to fill any faculty positions as they become available. Such procedures shall be consistent with the university’s stated AA/EEO policies and shall provide for participation in hiring by faculty and administrators in the unit.

E. Following the Selection Process
The dean or director shall appoint the new faculty member and advise him/her of the conditions, benefits, and obligations of the position. If the appointment is to be at the professor level, the dean/director must first obtain the concurrence of the chancellor or chancellor’s designee.

F. Letter of Appointment
The initial letter of appointment shall specify the nature of the assignment, the percentage emphasis that is to be placed on each of the parts of the faculty responsibility, mandatory year of tenure review, and any special conditions relating to the appointment.
This letter of appointment establishes the nature of the position and, while the percentage of emphasis for each part may vary with each workload distribution as specified in the annual workload agreement document, the part(s) defining the position may not.

CHAPTER III
Periodic Evaluation of Faculty

A. General Criteria
Criteria as outlined in “UAF Faculty Appointment and Evaluation Policies,” Chapter IV, AND LIBRARY SCIENCE UNIT CRITERIA AND INDICIES, evaluators may consider, but shall not be limited to, whichever of the following are appropriate to the faculty member’s professional obligation: mastery of subject matter; effectiveness in teaching; achievement in research, scholarly, and creative activity; effectiveness of public service; effectiveness of university service; demonstration of professional development and quality of total contribution to the university.

For purposes of evaluation at UAF, the total contribution to the university and activity in the areas outlined above will be defined by relevant activity and demonstrated competence from the following areas: 1) effectiveness in teaching; 2) achievement in scholarly activity; and 3) effectiveness of service.

Bipartite Faculty
Bipartite faculty are regular academic rank faculty who fill positions that are designated as performing two of the three parts of the university’s tripartite responsibility.

The dean or director of the relevant college/school shall determine which of the criteria defined above apply to these faculty.

Bipartite faculty may voluntarily engage in a tripartite function, but they will not be required to do so as a condition for evaluation, promotion, or tenure.

B. Criteria for Instruction
A central function of the university is instruction of students in formal courses and supervised study. Teaching includes those activities directly related to the formal and informal transmission of appropriate skills and knowledge to students. The nature of instruction will vary for each faculty member, depending upon workload distribution and the particular teaching mission of the unit. Instruction includes actual contact in classroom, correspondence or electronic delivery methods, laboratory or field and preparatory activities, such as preparing for lectures, setting up demonstrations, and preparing for laboratory experiments, as well as individual/independent study, tutorial sessions, evaluations, correcting papers, and determining grades. Other aspects of teaching and instruction extend to undergraduate and graduate academic advising and counseling, training graduate students and serving on their graduate committees, particularly as their major advisor, curriculum development, and academic recruiting and retention activities.
A CUSTOMARY TEACHING WORKLOAD FOR LIBRARY SCIENCE FACULTY MAY RANGE FROM 1-2 UNITS PER YEAR; TEACHING IS A SMALL PORTION OF THE LIBRARY SCIENCE WORKLOAD.

1. Effectiveness in Teaching
   Evidence of excellence in teaching may be demonstrated through, but not limited to, evidence of the various characteristics that define effective teachers. Effective teachers
   a. are highly organized, plan carefully, use class time efficiently, have clear objectives, have high expectations for students;

   e. demonstrate content mastery, discuss current information and divergent points of view, relate topics to other disciplines, deliver material at the appropriate level;
   f. regularly develop new courses, workshops and seminars and use a variety of methods of instructional delivery and instructional design.

LIBRARY FACULTY MEMBERS ENGAGE IN REGULAR REVISION OF THE CURRICULUM TO REFLECT CHANGES IN LIBRARY AND INFORMATION RESEARCH METHODS AND ACCESS TECHNOLOGIES. IN ADDITION TO TEACHING CREDIT COURSES, LIBRARY FACULTY MAY ALSO PROVIDE LECTURES, WORKSHOPS, AND SEMINARS FOR DISCIPLINE-BASED COURSES AT ALL LEVELS OF UAF’S ACADEMIC PROGRAMS IN COOPERATION WITH COURSE INSTRUCTORS.

   g. may receive prizes and awards for excellence in teaching.

2. Components of Evaluation
   Effectiveness in teaching will be evaluated through information on formal and informal teaching, course and curriculum material, recruiting and advising, training/guiding graduate students, etc., provided by:

   a. systematic student ratings, i.e. student opinion of instruction summary forms, and at least two of the following:
   b. narrative self-evaluation,
   c. peer/department chair classroom observation(s),
   d. peer/department chair evaluation of course materials.
C. Criteria for Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity

Inquiry and originality are central functions of a land grant/sea grant/space grant university and all faculty with a research component in their assignment must remain active as scholars. Consequently, faculty are expected to conduct research or engage in other scholarly or creative pursuits that are appropriate to the mission of their unit, and equally important, results of their work must be disseminated through media appropriate to their discipline. Furthermore, it is important to emphasize the distinction between routine production and creative excellence as evaluated by an individual's peers at the University of Alaska and elsewhere.

A CUSTOMARY RESEARCH WORKLOAD FOR LIBRARY SCIENCE FACULTY IS 2-3 UNITS OF THEIR TOTAL WORKLOAD. RESEARCH, SCHOLARLY, AND CREATIVE ACTIVITY ARE A SMALL PORTION OF THE NORMAL LIBRARY SCIENCE WORKLOAD.

1. Achievement in Research, Scholarly and Creative Activity

Whatever the contribution, research, scholarly or creative activities must have one or more of the following characteristics:

a. They must occur in a public forum.

b. They must be evaluated by appropriate peers.

c. They must be evaluated by peers external to this institution so as to allow an objective judgment.

d. They must be judged to make a contribution.

2. Components of Research, Scholarly and Creative Activity

Evidence of excellence in research, scholarly, and creative activity may be demonstrated through, but not limited to:

b. Competitive grants and contracts to finance the development of ideas, these grants and contracts being subject to rigorous peer review and approval.

c. Presentation of research papers before learned societies that accept papers only after rigorous review and approval by peers.

d. Exhibitions of art work at galleries, selection for these exhibitions being based on rigorous review and approval by juries, recognized artists, or critics.

e. Performances in recitals or productions, selection for these performances being based on stringent auditions and approval by appropriate judges.

f. Scholarly reviews of publications, art works and performance of the candidate.
g. Citations of research in scholarly publications.

j. Prizes and awards for excellence of scholarship.

k. Awards of special fellowships for research or artistic activities or selection of tours of duty at special institutes for advanced study.

l. Development of processes or instruments useful in solving problems, such as computer programs and systems for the processing of data, genetic plant and animal material, and where appropriate obtaining patents and/or copyrights for said development. DEVELOPMENT OF PEER-REVIEWED ADAPTATIONS OF NEW TECHNOLOGY INCLUDING SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT TO SOLVE PROBLEMS RELEVANT TO INFORMATION ACCESS AND/OR DELIVERY OF LIBRARY SERVICES.

m. PEER-REVIEWED EXHIBIT CURATION.

D. Criteria for Public and University Service
Public service is intrinsic to the land grant/sea grant/space grant tradition, and is a fundamental part of the university’s obligation to the people of its state. In this tradition, faculty providing their professional expertise for the benefit of the university’s external constituency, free of charge, is identified as “public service.” The tradition of the university itself provides that its faculty assumes a collegial obligation for the internal functioning of the institution; such service is identified as “university service.”

A CUSTOMARY SERVICE WORKLOAD FOR LIBRARY SCIENCE FACULTY MAY RANGE FROM 16 TO 37 UNITS. UNIVERSITY SERVICE IS THE LARGEST PORTION OF THE LIBRARY SCIENCE WORKLOAD.

1. Public Service
Public service is the application of teaching, research, and other scholarly and creative activity to constituencies outside the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It includes all activities which extend the faculty member’s professional, academic, or leadership competence to these constituencies. It can be instructional, collaborative, or consultative in nature and is related to the faculty member’s discipline or other publicly recognized expertise. Public service may be systematic activity that involves planning with clientele and delivery of information on a continuing, programmatic basis. It may also be informal, individual, professional contributions to the community or to one’s discipline, or other activities in furtherance of the goals and mission of the university and its units. Such service may occur on a periodic or limited-term basis. Examples include, but are not limited to:

It includes non-instructional work with students and their organizations. Examples of such activity include, but are not limited to:

   a. Service on university, college, school, institute, or departmental committees or governing bodies.

   e. Service on collective bargaining unit committees or elected office.

   f. Service in support of student organizations and activities.

   g. Academic support services such as library and museum programs.

   ALONG WITH UNIVERSITY SERVICE, LIBRARIANS MUST ALSO PERFORM SERVICE IN THE UNIT. AS SUCH, LIBRARIANS MUST DEMONSTRATE COMPETENCE AND EVIDENCE OF DEVELOPING EXCELLENCE IN HIS/HER PRIMARY AREA(S) OF RESPONSIBILITY WHICH ARE DESCRIBED BELOW. LIBRARY FACULTY WORKLOADS MAY SHOW ACTIVITY AND/OR RESPONSIBILITY FOR SOME BUT NOT ALL OF THESE SERVICE ACTIVITIES AND MAY ALSO INCLUDE ACTIVITIES SPECIFIED IN INDIVIDUAL WORKLOAD REQUIREMENTS.

REFERENCE
REFERENCE SERVICES PROVIDE A LINK BETWEEN USERS SEEKING INFORMATION AND THE INFORMATION SOURCE. SERVICES INCLUDE PROVIDING ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING BASIC INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTION IN THE SELECTION AND USE OF LIBRARY RESOURCES AND RESEARCH TOOLS.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT
COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT IS THE PROCESS BY WHICH LIBRARIANS DETERMINE THE MATERIALS TO BE INCLUDED IN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS THROUGH: SELECTION OF MATERIALS CHOSEN TO SUPPORT THE CURRICULUM AND THE UNIVERSITY’S MISSION; DEVELOPMENT OF DEPARTMENTAL LIAISON RELATIONSHIPS; MANAGEMENT OF THE COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT INFRASTRUCTURE; COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT OF DATA FOR COLLECTION ASSESSMENT AND ACCREDITATION/ASSESSMENT; AND DIRECTING LIBRARY PARTICIPATION IN CONSORTIAL OR OTHER JOINT PROJECTS SUCH AS COOPERATIVE PURCHASES AND SHARING OF ONLINE RESOURCES WITH OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

4. Evaluation of Service
   Each individual faculty member’s proportionate responsibility in service shall be reflected in annual workload agreements. In formulating criteria, standards and indices for evaluation, promotion, and tenure, individual units should include examples of service activities and measures for evaluation appropriate for that unit. Excellence in public and university service may be demonstrated through, e.g., appropriate letters of commendation, recommendation, and/or appreciation, certificates and awards and other public means of recognition for services rendered.

   ALTHOUGH ALL FACULTY MEMBERS ARE INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT, SCHOLARSHIP AND OTHER RELEVANT EXPERIENCE, A HIGH PROPORTION OF COOPERATIVE WORK IS ESSENTIAL FOR PROGRESS IN THE FIELD OF LIBRARIANSHIP. THEREFORE, EVALUATION OF LIBRARY SCIENCE FACULTY IS BASED UPON INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE PRACTICE OF LIBRARIANSHIP, SCHOLARLY, RESEARCH OR CREATIVE ACTIVITY AND SERVICE.

   EFFECTIVENESS IN SERVICE MAY BE EVALUATED BY ANY OF THE FOLLOWING METHODS:

Teaching includes those activities directly related to the formal and informal transmission of appropriate skills and knowledge to students. The nature of instruction will vary for each faculty member, depending upon workload distribution and the particular teaching mission of the unit. Instruction includes actual contact in classroom, correspondence or electronic delivery methods, laboratory or field and preparatory activities, such as preparing for lectures, setting up demonstrations, and preparing for laboratory experiments, as well as individual/independent study, tutorial sessions, evaluations, correcting papers, and determining grades. Other aspects of teaching and instruction extend to undergraduate and graduate academic advising and counseling, training graduate students and serving on their graduate committees particularly as their major advisor, curriculum development, and academic recruiting and retention activities.

TEACHING IS AN IMPORTANT MISSION OF ALL SFOS TENURE-TRACK FACULTY; TEACHING IN SFOS IS NORMALLY CONDUCTED THROUGH EITHER THE GRADUATE PROGRAM IN MARINE SCIENCE AND LIMNOLOGY (GPMSL) OR THE FISHERIES PROGRAM. THE SCOPE FOR UNDERGRADUATE TEACHING BY MOST GPMSL FACULTY IS LIMITED, BECAUSE THE PRIMARY MISSION OF GPMSL IS GRADUATE EDUCATION. THE MAJOR TEACHING ACTIVITIES OF MOST GPMSL FACULTY ARE CLASSROOM/LABORATORY/FIELD INSTRUCTION AT THE GRADUATE LEVEL AND ADVISING GRADUATE STUDENTS ON THESIS AND DISSERTATION RESEARCH. GRADUATE CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION OFTEN REQUIRES EFFORT DISPROPORTIONATE TO THE NUMBER OF STUDENTS SERVED. THE NORMAL EXPECTATION FOR FULL-TIME (9 MONTH) TENURE-TRACK FACULTY IS 6 CREDITS PER YEAR. FACULTY CAN REDUCE CLASSROOM TEACHING TO A MINIMUM OF 3 CREDITS PER YEAR WITH EXTERNAL FUNDING BUY-OUT. FOR FACULTY WITH DIFFERENT WORKLOADS, THE EXPECTATION FOR FORMAL TEACHING IS TO BE ADJUSTED PROPORTIONATELY IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANNUAL WORK LOAD STATEMENTS.

1. Effectiveness in Teaching

Evidence of excellence in teaching may be demonstrated through, but not limited to, evidence of the various characteristics that define effective teachers.

EFFECTIVE TEACHERS:

a. are highly organized, plan carefully, use class time efficiently, have clear objectives, have high expectations for students;

b. express positive regard for students, develop good rapport with students, show interest/enthusiasm for the subject;

c. emphasize and encourage student participation, ask questions, frequently monitor student participation for student learning and teacher effectiveness, are sensitive to student and clientele diversity;

d. emphasize regular feedback to students and reward student learning success;

e. demonstrate content mastery, discuss current information and divergent points of view, relate topics to other disciplines, deliver material at the appropriate level;

f. develop new courses, workshops and seminars and use a variety of methods of instructional delivery and instructional design;

 g. may receive prizes and awards for excellence in teaching.
2. Components of Evaluation

Effectiveness in teaching will be evaluated through information on formal and informal teaching, course and curriculum material, recruiting and advising, training/guiding graduate students, etc., provided by:

a. systematic student ratings i.e. student opinion of instruction summary forms, and at least two of the following:

b. narrative self-evaluation,

c. peer/department chair classroom observation(s),

d. peer/department chair evaluation of course materials.

PERFORMANCE AS MAJOR ADVISOR IS EVALUATED BASED ON DEGREES COMPLETED UNDER THE FACULTY MEMBER'S SUPERVISION, SINCE EACH REPRESENTS A MAJOR INVESTMENT OF FACULTY TIME. HOWEVER, IT IS RECOGNIZED THAT DEMAND FOR GRADUATE DEGREES IS NOT UNIFORM ACROSS DISCIPLINES, AND LIMITED AVAILABILITY OF STUDENTS MAY LIMIT A FACULTY MEMBER'S ACTIVITY IN GRADUATE ADVISING. PROMOTION TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR REQUIRES THAT AT LEAST ONE M.S. GRADUATE DEGREE HAS BEEN COMPLETED, OR ONE Ph.D. STUDENT HAS MADE SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS TOWARDS COMPLETION UNDER THE FACULTY MEMBER’S SUPERVISION AS MAJOR ADVISOR IF THE FACULTY MEMBER’S WORKLOAD INCLUDES TEACHING. PROMOTION TO PROFESSOR REQUIRES THAT AT LEAST TWO GRADUATE DEGREES (M.S. OR Ph.D.) HAVE BEEN COMPLETED UNDER THE FACULTY MEMBER’S SUPERVISION AS MAJOR ADVISOR IF THE FACULTY MEMBER’S WORKLOAD INCLUDES TEACHING. ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE OF PERFORMANCE QUALITY INCLUDES PUBLICATION OF PEER-REVIEWED JOURNAL ARTICLES OR BOOK CHAPTERS BASED ON THE ADVISED STUDENT'S THESIS OR DISSERTATION RESEARCH; STUDENT PRESENTATIONS AT NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS; AWARDS TO STUDENTS; AND STUDENT SUCCESS IN INITIAL EMPLOYMENT AFTER GRADUATION.

C. Criteria for Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity

Inquiry and originality are central functions of a land grant/sea grant/ space grant university and all faculty with a research component in their assignment must remain active as scholars. Consequently, faculty are expected to conduct research or engage in other scholarly or creative pursuits that are appropriate the mission of their unit, and equally important, results of their work must be disseminated through media appropriate to their discipline. Furthermore, it is important to emphasize the distinction between routine production and creative excellence as evaluated by an individual's peers at the University of Alaska and elsewhere.
1. Achievement in Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity
Whatever the contribution, research, scholarly or creative activities must have one or more of the following characteristics:

a. They must occur in a public forum.

b. They must be evaluated by appropriate peers.

c. They must be evaluated by peers external to this institution so as to allow an objective judgment.

d. They must be judged to make a contribution.

2. Components of Research, Scholarly and Creative Activity
Evidence of excellence in research, scholarly, and creative activity may be demonstrated through, but not limited to:

a. Books, reviews, monographs, bulletins, articles, proceedings and other scholarly works published by reputable journals, scholarly presses, and publishing houses that accept works only after rigorous review and approval by peers in the discipline.

THE PRIMARY EVIDENCE OF HIGH RESEARCH QUALITY IS PUBLICATION OF RESEARCH RESULTS AND INTERPRETATIONS IN RESPECTED, NATIONAL OR INTERNATIONAL, PEER-REVIEWED JOURNALS OR PEER-REVIEWED BOOKS OR BOOK CHAPTERS. IN EVALUATING SUCH PUBLICATIONS, QUALITY, AS JUDGED BY GPMSL/SFOS FACULTY PEERS, IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN QUANTITY.

SECONDARY EVIDENCE OF RESEARCH SUBSTANCE AND QUALITY CAN INCLUDE PUBLICATIONS THAT ARE NOT PEER-REVIEWED, SUCH AS FINAL CONTRACT REPORTS, DATA REPORTS, AND WEBSITES.

b. Competitive grants and contracts to finance the development of ideas; these grants and contracts being subject to rigorous peer review and approval.

SECONDARY EVIDENCE OF RESEARCH SUBSTANCE AND QUALITY CAN INCLUDE EXTERNAL FUNDING FROM SOURCES KNOWN FOR RIGOROUS PEER OR ORGANIZATIONAL REVIEW OF PROPOSALS.

c. Presentation of research papers before learned societies that accept papers only after rigorous review and approval by peers.

d. Exhitions of art works at galleries, selection for these exhibitions being based on rigorous review and approval by peers, juries, recognized artists, or critics.

e. Performance in recitals or productions; selection for these performances being based on stringent auditions and approval by appropriate judges.
f. Editing or refereeing articles or proposals for professional journals or organizations.

g. Scholarly reviews of publications, art works and performance of the candidate.

h. Citations of research in scholarly publications.

i. Published abstracts of research papers.

j. Reprints or quotations of publications, reproductions of art works, and descriptions of interpretations in the performing arts, these materials appearing in reputable works of the discipline.

k. Prizes and awards for excellence of scholarship.

l. Awards of special fellowships for research or artistic activities or selection of tours of duty at special institutes for advanced study.

m. Development of processes or instruments useful in solving problems, such as computer programs and systems for the processing of data, genetic plant and animal material, and where appropriate obtaining patents and/or copyrights for said development.

FACULTY APPLYING FOR PROMOTION OR TENURE MUST PRESENT EVIDENCE OF HIGH-QUALITY CONTRIBUTIONS IN RESEARCH. FOR A FULL-TIME (9-MONTH) WORKLOAD, THE MINIMUM EXPECTATION FOR AWARD OF TENURE AND PROMOTION TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IS A SUSTAINED PUBLICATION RECORD AVERAGING ONE PER YEAR, WITH A MINIMUM OF SIX. THE MINIMUM EXPECTATION OF PEER-REVIEWED PUBLICATIONS FOR PROMOTION TO PROFESSOR IS A SUSTAINED PUBLICATION RECORD AVERAGING ONE PER YEAR, WITH A MINIMUM OF TWELVE. TYPICALLY, AT LEAST HALF OF THE PUBLICATIONS AT EACH PROMOTION LEVEL WILL BE FIRST-AUTHORED BY THE CANDIDATE OR BY A GRADUATE STUDENT, UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT, OR POST-DOCTORAL SCHOLAR UNDER THE CANDIDATE’S DIRECT SUPERVISION. IT IS THE CANDIDATE’S TOTAL PUBLICATION RECORD, REGARDLESS OF AFFILIATION, THAT IS CONSIDERED IN DETERMINING THESE COUNTS.

D. Criteria for Public and University Service

Public service is intrinsic to the land grant/sea grant/space grant tradition, and is fundamental part of the university's obligation to the people of its state. In this tradition, faculty providing their professional expertise for the benefit of the university's external constituency, free of charge, is identified as "public service." The tradition of the university itself provides that its faculty assume a collegial obligation for the internal functioning of the institution; such service is identified as "university service."

TO BE CONSIDERED IN PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS, PUBLIC SERVICE ACTIVITIES MUST BE RELATED TO THE FACULTY MEMBER'S UNIVERSITY POSITION. SOME GPMSL FACULTY HAVE PART-TIME ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS THAT PROVIDE SERVICE TO A NATIONAL SCIENTIFIC COMMUNITY AND SIGNIFICANTLY INCREASE THE SERVICE PORTION OF THEIR WORKLOAD. THE PROPORTION OF WORKLOAD ASSIGNED TO FORMAL ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES AND TO UNIVERSITY, PROFESSIONAL AND PUBLIC SERVICE IS OUTLINED IN THE ANNUAL WORKLOAD STATEMENT.

1. Public Service
Public service is the application of teaching, research, and other scholarly and creative activity to constituencies outside the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It includes all activities that extend the faculty member's professional, academic, or leadership competence to these constituencies. It can be instructional, collaborative, or consultative in nature and is related to the faculty member's discipline or other publicly recognized expertise. Public service may be systematic activity that involves planning with clientele and delivery of information on a continuing, programmatic basis. It may also be informal, individual, professional contributions to the community or to one's discipline, or other activities in furtherance the goals and mission of the university and its units. Such service may occur on a periodic or limited-term basis. Examples include, but are not limited to:

a. Providing information services to adults or youth.

b. Service on or to government or public committees.

c. Service on accrediting bodies.

d. Active participation in professional organizations.

e. Active participation in discipline-oriented service organizations.

 f. VOLUNTARY consulting IN THE FACULTY MEMBER'S AREA OF EXPERTISE CONSISTENT WITH THE OBLIGATION FOR PUBLIC SERVICE.

g. Prizes and awards for excellence in public service.

h. Leadership of or presentations at workshops, conferences, or public meetings.

i. Training and facilitating.

j. Radio and TV programs, newspaper or trade journal articles and columns, publications, newsletters, films, computer applications, teleconferences and other educational media.

k. Judging and similar educational assistance at science fairs, state fairs, and speech, drama, literary, and similar competitions.

2. University Service
University service includes those activities involving faculty members in the governance, administration, and other internal affairs of the university, its colleges, schools, and institutes. It includes non-instructional work with students and their organizations. Examples of such activity include, but are not limited to:

a. Service on university, college, school, institute, departmental committees or governing bodies.

b. Consultative work in support of university functions, such as expert assistance for specific projects.

c. Service as department chair, or term-limited and part-time assignment as assistant/associate dean in a college, school, OR PROGRAM.

d. Participation in accreditation reviews.

e. Service on collective bargaining unit committees or elected office.

f. Service in support of student organizations and activities.

g. Academic support services such as library and museum programs.

h. Assisting other faculty or units with curriculum planning and delivery of instruction, such as serving as guest lecturer.

i. Mentoring JUNIOR FACULTY

j. Prizes and awards for excellence in university service.

3. Professional Service

a. Editing or refereeing articles or proposals for professional journals or organizations.

b. Active participation in professional organizations.

c. Active participation in discipline-oriented service organizations.

d. Committee chair or officer of professional organizations.

e. Organizer, session organizer, or moderator for professional meetings.

f. Service on a national or international review panel or committee.

4. Evaluation of Service

Each individual faculty member's proportionate responsibility in service shall be reflected in annual workload agreements. In formulating criteria, standards and indices for evaluation, promotion, and tenure, individual units should include examples of service activities and measures for evaluation for that unit. Excellence in public and university service may be demonstrated through, e.g., appropriate letters of commendation, recommendation, and/or appreciation, certificates and awards, and other public means of recognition for services rendered.

FOR GPMSL FACULTY, EVIDENCE OF HIGH-QUALITY PERFORMANCE MAY INCLUDE (1) EVALUATION LETTERS FROM PEERS, ADMINISTRATORS, OR OTHERS WITH DIRECT KNOWLEDGE, (2) SPECIFIC ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS REPORTED IN THE SELF-EVALUATION AND/OR ACTIVITY REPORTS, AND (3) EVIDENCE OF REPEATED REQUESTS FOR THE FACULTY MEMBER TO PERFORM NEW OR EXPANDED SERVICE ACTIVITIES. SUCH REQUESTS ARE STRONG EVIDENCE FOR QUALITY PERFORMANCE. FACULTY APPLYING FOR PROMOTION OR TENURE MUST PRESENT EVIDENCE OF QUALITY SERVICE CONTRIBUTIONS. FOR PROMOTION TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR AND TENURE, SERVICE IN AT LEAST TWO OF THE THREE CLASSES OF SERVICE (PUBLIC, UNIVERSITY, PROFESSIONAL) IS NORMALLY EXPECTED. FOR PROMOTION TO PROFESSOR, FACULTY SHOULD DEMONSTRATE AN EXPANDED SERVICE CONTRIBUTION, NORMALLY INCLUDING SERVICE AT THE NATIONAL OR INTERNATIONAL LEVEL.
MOTION:

The UAF Faculty Senate moves to amend approved alternatives to a Minor to include certificates in addition to A.A.S. degrees (p. 121, 2007-2008 UAF Catalog).

CAPS = Additions

[[]] = Deletions

An associate of applied science (A.A.S.) degree OR CERTIFICATE OF AT LEAST 30 CREDITS earned at any regionally accredited college or university may be used to meet requirements for a minor for the bachelor of arts (B.A.) degree.

EFFECTIVE: Immediately

Upon Chancellor Approval

RATIONALE: Since a certificate requires a greater number of credits in a discipline than a minor, this addition is well within the spirit of a minor concentration and makes completing the requirements for a minor easier for students who begin with limited academic goals and progressively work towards a bachelor's degree.
The UAF Faculty Senate moves to reject use of the Digital Measures software for electronic Faculty Annual Activities Reports at UAF.

EFFECTIVE: Immediately

RATIONALE: The UAF Administration is in the process of testing an electronic system of Faculty Annual Activities Reports. The company Digital Measures was contracted to customize existing software for the UA system, incorporating requests from administrators and a survey of deans/directors. A beta test of the software was conducted in Fall 2007 with the faculty of the School of Fisheries & Ocean Sciences at UAF. Beta tests were also performed with departments at UAA and UAS.

The faculty of UAA oppose adoption of this system, and it is no longer under consideration for that MAU. The UAF administration wishes to move forward with adoption, focusing its efforts on refining and improving the software. The feedback received from SFOS faculty addressed programming and design issues from the users’ point of view, i.e., the nuts and bolts of the data entry. This feedback did not include discussion of the role of these electronic reports at UAF, nor their broader implications.

The Annual Activities Reports are designed to help guide the career of faculty in consultation with their dean and/or director, and are used as a tool for faculty performance evaluation as stated in the Collective Bargaining Agreements. The system being tested from Digital Measures focuses on measuring university performance. These are two separate goals which have limited overlap. The attempt to achieve both at once has made for a system with critical failings for each goal.

The Faculty Alliance in 2004 drafted objectives, guidelines and constraints of an electronic interactive database system for faculty workload and activity reports. A detailed analysis of the Digital Measures system has shown that few of these objectives, guidelines and constraints were met. Further, the proposed system doubled the required information over the current Annual Activity report. The primary concerns of the faculty are the security of sensitive information, use of this information for inappropriate purposes, duplication of effort through lack of coordination with other on and off campus databases, and compliance with the respective Collective Bargaining Agreements. As a database for measuring university performance, the system is poorly designed, error prone, cumbersome and does not take advantage of modern computing capabilities.

The recommendation of the Faculty Senate is to drop the effort to use electronic Annual Activities Reports as input for a comprehensive university database. The faculty would support an electronic version of Annual Activities Reports if it met the criteria specified by the Faculty Alliance in 2004. A separate database of faculty activities could be created with only the public professional products of the faculty; however, considering the poor result from the time, effort, and resources already devoted to adapting the Digital Measures software for the University of Alaska, further investment in this system as a public professional products database is not advisable.

See the Faculty Affairs Committee report on the automated Annual Activity Reports for more detailed information. A copy is posted online at the following web address:

RESOLUTION:

SUPPORTING SUCCESS INITIATIVES THROUGH HIRING OF FULL TIME TENURE TRACK FACULTY

WHEREAS, UAF has been engaged over the past several years in an increasing emphasis on programs and policies that enhance student success; and

WHEREAS, national data indicates that students are more successful when their first contact with instructors is with full-time faculty in stable positions who are involved in and committed to planning and evaluation of entry-level programs; and

WHEREAS, with upcoming changes in admissions and placement for entering students, there will be a greater need for faculty in entry level classes, including student success and developmental classes; and

WHEREAS, in motions to implement mandatory placement and to endorse the recommendations of the Developmental Education Implementation Task force, the Faculty Senate clearly stated that these motions require financial commitment from UAF, including the creation and support of full-time tenure track faculty positions; and

WHEREAS, many in the general public and the state Legislature are becoming increasingly concerned about the disproportionately rising administration costs while funding for direct classroom instruction comparatively shrinks;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the UAF Faculty Senate strongly encourages the creation and hiring of full-time, tenure track positions in all areas that specifically address entering students and student success; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the UAF Faculty Senate strongly encourages funding be dedicated to hiring and supporting full-time tenure-track faculty members and away from burgeoning administration costs as documented in the MacTaggart and Rogers report.
Curricular Affairs Committee Meeting Minutes March 24, 2008

Present: Deanna Dieringer, Linda Hapsmith, Rainer Newberry, Ilana Kingsley, Amber Thomas, Jane Allen, Carol Lewis, Falk Huettmann, Beth Leonard, Diane McEachern, Caty Oehring, Libby Eddy, Lael Croteau,

- Deanna brought up the issue of waiving core courses. “If a student is accepted to UAF with a bachelor's degree and the core is waived and a degree program asks for a specific core course to be taken, then will the student still have to take this core course such as ANTH 100X since it is required by the department or is it automatically waived?”

- Fisheries BA:
  - Committee members would like for Fisheries to include a statement in the program proposal about the long term sustainability of the program and how it will benefit UAF and AK.
  - We should forward the concern of the potential cost of the program to Faculty Senate (FS).
  - We should let FS know that there is strong industry support for the program. Industry says they can use grads with a BA in Fisheries.
  - Motion to send proposal to FS was approved, as long as a statement about the program's sustainability is included.
  - After motion was approved, a committee member noticed some errors in the requirements. Some of the econ courses had a prerequisite for calculus. Also need to check on the new bio courses, 115 & 116. Linda agreed to work with Trent on fixing the requirements. Ilana said she’d send out the revised program to the committee for feedback.

- Academic Calendar:
  - Springfest was fixed, but Deanna wasn’t sure about one of the comments “Each class requires 14 meeting days in order to meet minimum contact minutes. (Faculty Senate – 10/15/90).”
  - Ilana said she’d bring it up at the Admin meeting.

- Adding another option to BA degree:
  - Suggest changing the wording in the catalog, pg. 121 from “…A.A.S. degree earned…” to “…Certificate of at least 30 credits or an A.A.S. degree…”
  - We’ll resume this discussion at the next meeting

Next meeting is April 14th, 9am, Rasmuson Library Joint Conference Room.
Meeting Minutes April 14, 2008

Present: Deanna Dieringer, Linda Hapsmith, Rainer Newberry, Ilana Kingsley, Amber Thomas, Jane Allen, Falk Huettmann, Beth Leonard, Lillian Misel

- Falk was wondering how to get a “digital/paperless” course designated in the calendar. This would be part of the sustainable campus initiative and IPY. Committee didn’t have an answer for this.

- Alternative to minor:
  - Suggest changing the wording in the catalog, pg. 121 from “…A.A.S. degree earned…” to “….Certificate program of at least 30 credits from a regionally accredited institution or an A.A.S. degree…”
  - Motion to bring this to FS. Rainer will write the Rationale.

- The committee is looking for a chairperson. This will go on agenda for next meeting.
- Ilana will follow-up with Dana regarding CLEP scores.
- Univ. is looking to switch from Compass to Accuplacer placement tests.

Next meeting is April 28th, 9am, Rasmuson Library Joint Conference Room.
Faculty Affairs Committee Meeting
Rasmussen 341 15:15 Wednesday March 26th.

Dehn, Christie, Hogan, Barrick, Weisenburg, Reynolds

* Report on from Barrick on adjunct faculty. A series of guidelines were suggested, but no data on the actual conditions at UAF yet gathered. The Provost's office has been requested for this data, we hope to have that in a few weeks. A draft report to the senate will be sent out before the next committee meeting for committee comments.

* Nomination of faculty by the Senate to the Chancellor's committees. Lively discussion again on this topic. In consultation with the Administrative committee, the course of action recommended is to draft a motion requesting the Chancellor in the future give an explanation if the nominee is not appointed. It was not felt by the majority in committees (though we didn't have a quorum in both cases, and there was one strongly opposed to the majority) that further efforts to seek explanation in the case that triggered this would yield meaningful results.

* Automated annual activities reports. Draft of report to the Senate is in preparation, the point most agreed upon is that gathering metrics to represent university achievement and a personal document for each faculty member to guide their careers may be related, but are two separate functions. Much duplication of current databases exists in the current, yet changing form of the automated annual activities report. We would like to suggest a variant of the automated scheme that provides a measure of the professional output of the faculty members, but does not include any sensitive information, or information already in the Banner System. In addition, following the guidelines laid down for these reports, be easy and efficient for faculty members to fill out. The current form is quite onerous and could require it to be included in the next CBA. Finally, in order to get "faculty buy-in" on the system, we'd like to request more involvement than has been offered in the past for the creation of this tool to best meet the needs of the faculty and administration.

FACULTY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE 2007-2008 ANNUAL REPORT

Submitted by Jon Dehn, Chair

The Faculty Affairs Committee dealt with many varied issues throughout the year. There were 8 meetings held over this term, and all but two represented a quorum of the committee. One Resolution and one Motion were produced in addition to the reports attached to this document. Following is a summary of the specific issues.

Resolution on open tenure/promotion meetings

In order to promote transparency in the tenure/promotion review process, a resolution was passed to recommend that the review committees allow meetings to remain open, thus passing to the candidates the choice of holding open or closed meetings. This was done out of the concern of individual faculty members as well as through a request from the Unions to aid in negotiations. Though the resolution did not result in a change of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, it did promote discussion on this issue. Further, at least one committee revisited its decision to hold closed meetings based on the Resolution, however upheld the results of its first vote on the format of the meetings. The timing of the Resolution was unfortunate, since the tenure/promotion committees had been formed well in advance and most the procedures already decided upon when the resolution was passed. As a follow-up, the Committee recommends that the Resolution be brought to the attention of the new tenure/review committees as soon as they are formed.

Consideration of the Role of the Faculty Affairs Committee

The bylaws regarding the Faculty Affairs Committee were written well before the Unions were present on campus. The Committee considered amending the bylaws to reflect this change, but eventually deemed this unnecessary. Union representatives have been regularly invited to Faculty Affairs meetings.

Study of the bylaws also drew the attention of the committee to its financial responsibilities. In order to fulfill the following statement in the bylaws, “In its concern for fiscal issues the committee shall monitor budget appropriations to the university and evaluate any notice to the faculty of financial exigency. In performing these duties, the committee will coordinate as necessary with the relevant officers (and/or their representatives) of the extant collective bargaining units who serve as non-voting members of the Senate and ex-officio members of this committee.”, it was decided that a representative from the committee volunteer to serve on the Chancellor’s budget committee. The chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee volunteered and was appointed as a member of the Chancellor’s Budget Committee.

Allegations of Discrimination for Appointment to the Chancellor’s Committee on Campus Diversity

Dr. Abel Bult-Ito, Associate Professor of Biology, was not re-appointed to the Chancellor’s Committee on Campus Diversity in spite of his nomination to the post by the Faculty Senate. Dr. Bult-Ito felt that the faculty senate was misled into changing a nomination for this committee, that he was discriminated against based on his gender and racial characteristics, and that his academic freedom was violated. This issue was given to the Faculty Affairs Committee. Based on the exchange of emails between Dr. Bult-Ito and Earlina Bowden, Assistant to the Chancellor for Campus Diversity, it was clear that the first mention of race and gender was given by Dr. Bult-Ito, and that the basis of the misunderstanding lay in the interpretation of the guidelines for term limits. It is not stated explicitly that a term on the committee can or cannot be repeated indefinitely. When asked by the committee for what resolution Dr. Bult-Ito wished from the investigation, he declined to comment. During the Senate Meeting on 10 December 2007, in response to questions on the topic, Dr. Bult-Ito suggested a resolution of censure against the Chancellor.

Note that the bylaws state that two members of Faculty Senate be on this committee. Though he has served in the past as Senator, President-Elect and President of the Senate, Dr. Bult-Ito is not a member of the Senate at this time. It is also important to note that the Committee for Campus Diversity operates under the Staff Council, and the participation of a Faculty Senate member or members is a courtesy. A nomination by the Senate does not necessarily mean an appointment by the Chancellor or their designee to a particular committee. Finally it is unclear how Dr. Bult-Ito’s academic freedom was violated, since he exercised these freedoms unfettered by bringing this issue to the Senate.
Based on this the Faculty Affairs Committee found no grounds for censure of the Chancellor. It would be of some concern if the Senate’s nominees are regularly declined by the Chancellor, but there is no evidence to suggest that this is the case. Nevertheless, it is recommended that the Senate seek an explanation from the Chancellor if a nominee is declined in the future. Meanwhile, Dr. Bult-Ito has informed the Senate that he has since been re-instated to the Committee for Campus Diversity.

Potential exploitation of Adjunct Faculty

This issue was brought to Faculty Affairs Committee through concern in the Committee on the Status of Women and the Student Academic Development and Achievement Committee. The Faculty Affairs Committee made an effort to quantify this problem and determine whether and where exploitation of adjunct faculty was taking place. The initial analysis brought a variety of facts to light.

- Adjunct Faculty at UAF are not equally paid from department to department (or schools/colleges) or sometimes even from individual case to individual case.
- Adjunct Faculty can be loosely classified into four categories; only the latter potentially suffers from exploitation.
  - Professionals employed elsewhere, who offer a course based on their unique experience to augment programs at UAF. They may teach the course primarily for non-monetary personal rewards and/or to maintain a teaching certificate.
  - Retirees who teach a course suited to their skills which augments programs at UAF. They enjoy the benefits from their retirement and are not dependent on income from teaching at UAF. They also may teach primarily for non-monetary rewards and/or to maintain a teaching certificate.
  - Post-doctoral researchers, recent graduates or graduating Ph.D. students who teach a class to garner experience in preparation for a career in academia.
  - Adjunct Faculty who are repeatedly asked to teach courses in place of full-time Faculty, teach more than one class a semester, and/or are trying to build a career based on this piecemeal approach. These people are particularly vulnerable if they are dependent on adjunct teaching assignments for personal income.
- The potential exploitation appears to be limited to certain schools or colleges on campus. This assessment is based on anecdotal evidence.
- Adjunct Faculty are not represented in the Faculty Senate, and it is unclear whether it is appropriate for the Senate to address exploitation of Adjunct Faculty on their behalf. However, the role of Adjunct Faculty in academic departments is a relevant issue for the Faculty Senate. Fact finding and recommendations were deemed worthy efforts.

In addition, Adjunct Faculty have their own union, but are not effectively represented, possibly due to the variance among individual cases. Many of the Adjunct Faculty do not need or desire union representation. In examining the issue at the other MAUs, the Committee noted that UAA has its own handbook for Adjunct Faculty, and UAS is building a website to aid these Faculty members. Senator Barrick led the inquiry and created a draft set of Guidelines and Recommendations for Adjunct Faculty at UAF (see attachment 1). In order to quantify the problem, a written request for data was submitted to the Provost’s office on March 31, 2008, but no data have been received at the time of this report.

Investigation of this issue will continue during the next term of the Senate.

Automated Annual Activities Reports
This issue has been before the Faculty Affairs Committee several times over the last 3 years, and has never received a favorable response from the Committee. The current system being tested by Digital Measures was found to be inadequate, both for the needs of the faculty for their reports, as well as for gauging the products of the university. The Faculty Affairs Committee made a motion to abandon the Digital Measures annual activity reporting, and suggested instead a standardized database of public professional products of the faculty. A detailed report on the findings and suggestions is attached to this document.

GPMSL:
The committee approves the GPMSL criteria and will forward it to the Faculty Senate for the next meeting.

Library Science:
The section that the Senate questioned has been removed from the Library Science criteria. The committee approves these criteria and will forward it to the Faculty Senate for the next meeting.

DANRD:
We strongly suggest that DANRD review the Marine Advisory Program Unit Criteria and perhaps Library Science to see how non-traditional criteria are written.
When DANRD re-submit, please do not send as a PDF file.
It would be very helpful if a DANRD representative came to the next Unit Criteria meeting for clarification when their criteria are re-submitted.

General Comments:
Put specific items under the relevant bullet points that are already provided. As example: Put W (Pg 6, Play or Dance Production) under E (Pg, 6, Exhibition of art work….). This is just one example. There are many that need to be re-arranged.
Also, put specific items in the correct category. As example: JJ (Pg 6) belongs under Service.
Some specific items need clarification. As example: BB (Pg 6) Websites…. More details need to be put into this and it needs to go into the correct heading.
Non-peer reviewed items need to be under service. Research reports, manuscripts, etc… need to be peer-reviewed.

At the end of each section (Teaching, Research and Service), the evaluation for each rank either needs to be included or deleted. As it is written, it is unclear if these items are suggested or required. They are not helpful if they are suggested. As the criteria are written, it can not be determined what is expected of an associate and full professor. This will not help a faculty member to determine what is expected from them. As example: 3. Evaluation of research, scholarly and creative activity (Pg 7). This needs to say that faculty “should” and not “may”. It also should say what is expected at the associate and full professor level. You do not need to add it as a separate “3.”. Most other criteria have just added a paragraph explaining expectations of associate and full professor.
Teaching:

The paragraph that starts “Research is a relatively new part of the mission…” needs to be deleted. It does not add anything. In the second and third paragraph, the mission of your unit needs to be explained. Only items that will help people evaluate your faculty should be here. The sentence that starts “Some faculty members may have greater or lesser…” needs to be eliminated. This does not add anything. Evaluation of faculty is based on their workloads.

We are confused with the definition “or appropriate judges”. This definition needs to come prior to the first time it is used.

Criteria Considered:

Library Science: These criteria were first submitted in the 2006-07 academic year. The 2007-08 Unit Criteria Committee first reviewed these criteria at the meeting on October 29 2007. It was returned to Library Science for revisions and was eventually approved by the committee on March 31 2008. The Faculty Senate did have some concerns so it came back to the committee after which the senate comments were forwarded to Library Science. These criteria were amended according to the Senate’s suggestions and reviewed by the committee on April 25 2008, where they were approved. These criteria will be voted on by the Faculty Senate on May 5.

English and Philosophy and Humanities: These criteria were first submitted on February 25 2008. The criteria went through some minor revisions and were approved by the committee on March 31 2008. These criteria were approved by the Senate on April 7 2008.
Graduate Program in Marine Science and Limnology: These criteria were first submitted on March 31 2008. The criteria went through some minor revisions and were approved by the committee on April 25 2008. These criteria will be voted on by the Faculty Senate on May 5.

Committee on the Status of Women  2007-08 Annual Report

The Committee on the Status of Women (CSW) met monthly during AY 2007-08 to work on issues affecting women faculty at UAF. There were at least nine members present at most meetings.

CSW was instrumental in shaping the campus-wide discussion of child care needs, including drafting a resolution in support of Bunnell House that was passed at Faculty Senate. One of our committee members was invited to join the Bunnell House task force. Through this work, the CSW strengthened the collaborative relationship with Staff Council, leading to a parallel resolution in support of Bunnell House being passed in Staff Council.

The CSW co-wrote a grant with the UAF Women’s Center to sponsor a keynote talk by Professor Martha West as part of a larger, campus-wide project on Equal Pay Day. West’s talk was attended by 40 persons, many of whom were female faculty. Other notable attendees were the newly appointed interim chancellor, the provost, women staff members, and students.

In the fall, CSW organized UAF’s third annual Women Faculty Luncheon, which was audioconferenced for rural faculty. Provost Susan Henrichs gave a keynote address that was quite well received, and nearly one hundred women faculty attended. We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Office of the Chancellor. We have secured the funding and are planning the fourth luncheon for October 7, 2008.

CSW again organized a two hour comprehensive tenure and promotion workshop. The workshop this year highlighted strategic planning for promotion and tenure. Thirty-one persons attended in person, or through audioconference or E-Live. This extremely useful workshop has now also become an annual event, and provides an informal venue for faculty to discuss strategies, file preparation, mentoring, effectively preparing for tenure and/or promotion, fourth year reviews, and other issues related to the T&P process at UAF. Members of both ACCFT and United Academics are panelists and participants.

CSW has a permanent seat on the Chancellor’s Campus Diversity Action Committee (CCDAC). This committee met several times during AY 2007-08, and the CSW representative brought issues of equity to the attention of the committee.

In Progress:
- Study of the tenure and promotion decision-making process (the study is partially funded by the Office of the Provost)
- Gathering and analyzing historical data information with gender on time to tenure and promotions, rank, and salary information for faculty at UAF for at least the last ten years
- Discussion of the issue of adjuncts and term-funded faculty, especially as these issues differentially affect women
- Facilitating mentoring of new, mid-career, and senior women and allied men
• Strengthen liaison relationships with women staff members at UAF, the UAF Women’s Center, and with faculty at the other MAUs.
Faculty Development & Assessment Committee
Meeting Minutes April 16, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 8:20 am. The following faculty were present: Larry Roberts, Joy Morrison, Channon Price, Michael Daku, Julie Lerman, Susan Herman, Christie Cooper, Marji Illingworth, and Dana Greci. The minutes from last meeting had already been approved via email.

Joy’s Update
1. Joy wanted input from the committee on how to change things, and whether to change them at all.
2. She had to postpone the April 28 Critical Thinking Workshop led by Bill Roberson and hold it on April 11th instead. It was extraordinarily good. Twelve people attended. As he is one of the best trainers in the country, Joy will try to bring him up again. The group gave input on how to improve attendance at the workshop; suggestions included holding it during Spring Fest, or on an evening or weekend.
3. Bob Lucas will be presenting on grant and scholarly writing April 25-26. Several Usibelli research award winners will present on April 18.
4. Joy is going around to new staff and faculty at various campuses to talk with them about workload agreements, annual activities reports, tenure, and promotion.
5. August 18-19, there will be an orientation for new faculty.

Faculty Forums
We had about 23 participants at the TVC forum and 17 at the one at Copper Lane House. The presentations were good; faculty enjoyed the forums. The students at the Copper Lane forum gave positive feedback about the teaching they receive at UAF though they had some negative feedback about other aspects of university life, such as housing, food, and registration. The committee feels that students need more venues to have someone listen to their concerns. The students were impressed by Susan and Dani’s presentations and were very happy to be able to participate.

Review of Activities/Progress and Obstacles
1. This year, our committee made our first two attempts at forums; both were successful.
2. This year’s Adult Learning Conference, endorsed by our committee, was successful.
3. We formed sub-committees. This was new this year, and successful.
4. We are still working on meeting with the Provost; a meeting is scheduled for next week.
5. Joy hasn’t been able to get any RFPs through the Provost’s office to Dan Julius at statewide Academic Affairs. She wanted more funding for national speakers, for example Ken Bayne. (He is still coming but out of Joy’s budget.) The Provost did support Joy’s taking new faculty to the Lilly West conference, but funding has remained stationary even though Susan talked at the beginning of the year about giving more support to faculty development. Joy is already over budget.
Final Committee Reports
The Faculty Peer Assessment group reported on their recent work. The group found several good sites for tools others are using around the country, including tools for faculty self-reflection and peer evaluation. They also found where there was an absence of tools available for specific purposes such as the evaluation of science labs and web-based classes.

Suggested items to forward to next year FDAI committee
1. Continue forums. Improve quality of polycom hook-up. (Copper Lane house is not a good venue.) Organize more forums where students get to participate. Include a forum in the new-faculty orientation.
2. This committee could be a more active advocate for faculty development funding. We can ask Susan Heinrich how we can work with her to support her vision. One option is to meet with her at the beginning of each semester, to plan together. And/or one person from the committee (the Chair) could meet with her regularly. The Advisory Board also could advocate to the Provost.
3. Keep the Advisory Board on our radar for next year, on the make-up and charge and activity of the group. See whether Susan Heinrich supports having an Advisory Board.
4. Research into faculty peer assessment tools can be continued, and self-reflection and peer evaluation tools can be developed as needed for use at our university. The next step is for the faculty peer assessment subcommittee to meet with Joy to align the work of this subcommittee and her office. One potential goal is to extend the availability of those tools and develop a way that the FDAI committee can help support faculty in their use of them.
5. Understanding between committee members from one year to another, i.e. committee memory, is important to us. We are working on making a change in the culture of faculty development at UAF.

Reminder
There is a meeting with the Provost next week at 8:00 am on Wednesday, April 23rd. It will be held at Bunnell 222.

General Comments
Susan Herman is giving a workshop on group facilitation September 5th & 6th. It will be held in the Wood Center Ballroom.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:10 am.
met since she’s been Provost. To pursue setting it up, she would need to see how it differs from what our committee does.

Channon brought up the issue that the UAA Faculty Development office has more resources than we do. Susan agrees this is a problem. She said she asked for more resources during the last budget cycle, but we are unlikely to get them from statewide. Any resources we procure would have to come from a redirect from other focus areas. The FY10 focus areas for the statewide budget include engineering, allied health, work force development, teacher preparation, research, and student success (which includes learning communities and revision of math instruction and curriculum). We will have $6million in carry-forward. It seems likely that she can get some of this for faculty development for next year.

Susan brought up the issue that Faculty Development activities are lightly attended, and that it’s hard to put funding into them under these circumstances. Joy’s been compiling attendance statistics; Susan will review them soon. Channon said that perhaps if there were a culture of participation in faculty development people would be there more, and that new faculty are benefitting. Susan agreed that new faculty are benefitting from the activities. But she said she doesn’t think that senior faculty and deans are emphasizing the importance of this area. In some departments, workload units are given to faculty for mentoring and being mentored, but this may not be true across the board. Susan said we need to do some more research about how to get a broader spectrum of people to attend. Faculty need to know what will make it worthwhile for them to attend. Susan has been reviewing promotion and tenure files: the existence of reports of participation in faculty development activities is spotty. Joy had done a survey of the usefulness of Faculty Development activities, but Susan thinks the information generated was too general to be useful. She will check the survey results again. She plans to interview people who attended Faculty Development events to find out what worked and didn’t work for them.

Joy was not at the meeting, but she later said she will meet with Susan and discuss ways of improving attendance. She is thinking of things like only having two events a month, maybe on Friday afternoons. Right now she has something nearly every Friday morning, sometimes two events on a Friday morning. This might be too much. She has done lots of surveys in the past, but it wouldn’t hurt to find out what the newer faculty needs are. It might be good to have FDAI do this instead of Joy’s office this time. A series of focus groups with first year, second year, third year and fourth year faculty might produce interesting data.

Larry said that our committee could sponsor a UAF survey of faculty, administrators, etc. about what does work, what hasn’t worked, and what might work. We could research what UAA and other leading centers in the US have done to become successful. Joy has done some of this already; perhaps we could continue it. One emphasis would be on how these programs got to this point, how they developed the culture, whether they did a needs assessment, what they focused on in the genesis of the program. We could host audio-conferences with good faculty development programs to discuss this (e.g. with Barbara Millis and Todd Zakrajsek). The meetings could be public so other faculty could attend. We have to build the culture from the ground up.

As far as faculty peer evaluation goes, Susan would like to see more emphasis on formative peer evaluation rather than just evaluation for the tenure and promotion files. She would like to see more people trained and available to do these evaluations, to extend the range.
Susan said that meeting with FDAI at the beginning of each semester is important. We ended the meeting by planning to meet next fall. Susan said making an appointment way in advance is the best way to be sure to meet with her.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dana Greci, Recorder

FDAI Committee
Year-end report 2007-2008
Submitted April 22, 2008

Active Participation
The Faculty Development, Assessment, and Improvement Committee (FDAI) ends this year in a most positive and productive manner after an active participation by its membership throughout the academic year. The FDAI successfully held regular meetings and performed its business each month September 2007 through April 2008. In addition to these eight regular sessions, an additional meeting with the Provost is scheduled for April 23 to complete the year. If that were not busy enough, faculty members also met in their respective subcommittees apart from the regular meetings.

New and Continued Projects/Activities
1) The FDAI played an active role in establishing and supporting the third, in-state national conference on teaching excellence in higher education. This year’s conference received national recognition at an official institute under the Lilly group on teaching in higher education. As such the title for year three was the Lilly Arctic Institute on the Innovations and Excellence in Teaching: Celebrating the Adult Learner & Cultural Attunement. Held at the Princess Hotel in Fairbanks, 100 participants representing 10 states and all three University of Alaska campuses benefited from the first true national conference of its type at a most nominal cost to participants due especially for UAF faculty who did not have to seek funds for airfare or housing required with when traveling to conferences out of state. Review of the conference can be found at the following web site: www.uaf.edu/crcdhealth.conference.htm

2) Faculty Senate Forums: the idea of regular faculty forums emerged last year as a result of the Provost Reichardt’s sponsored forum on teaching assessment. The idea was generated and supported to have the FDAI sponsor on behalf of the faculty a series of faculty forums as an opportunity to bring interested faculty together on a semester basis to discuss and review important issues and thoughts surrounding the practice of good teaching specifically and the more general academic duties of faculty such as research and service.

Entitled Hook them, hold them, and educated them: What’s your bait? The first series was arranged for one forum at the TVC campus downtown followed by a second offering on the main campus. Respectively, they were held April 2 and 4. Both forums included audioconference participation. 24 faculty were in attendance at the TVC forum. The forum on the main campus was held in the Honors building had 18 participants including call ins and four invited students. Thanks to the special work by FDAI Faculty Forum committee members, both forums well facilitated and received. Presenting faculty members included Dani’ Sheppard, Charlie Dexter, Ron Illingworth, Susan Herman, and Beth Kersey. Provost Henrichs was generous in her supply of lunches for participants at both forums.

As a result of the success of our first series of Senate Faculty Forums, the FDAI has intentions of sponsoring other topical forums next year and beyond.

3) Monthly program updates from Joy Morrison on the work of the Faculty Development Office’s work and events.

New subcommittees formed

Four standing committees were formed this year to do the work of our committee. They include the following:

1) Faculty Senate Forum committee
2) Faculty/peer Assessment committee
3) Faculty Input to the UAF Strategic Visioning Task Force committee
4) Faculty committee in support of the UAF annual conference on innovations and excellence in teaching

In closing, I would like to thank each and every FDAI member for their active participation and support throughout the 2007-2008 academic year.
