FYE 100 Student Success Curriculum
Fall 2015

Assignment 3: Making a Four-Year Plan (Due 5:00 p.m., 11/23/2015)

Part 1: Meeting with your advisor.

Communicating regularly with your academic advisor is important to staying on track with your degree program. For this assignment, you will schedule a meeting with your advisor to discuss coursework options for next semester as well as planning a rough idea of the remaining years of your degree. Do you want to study abroad? This is something you and your advisor should discuss and plan for.

To receive credit for this assignment you must forward an email correspondence confirming that you have met with your advisor, to the Student Success Curriculum instructor.

Part 2: Drafting a 4-Year Plan

In whatever digital format you choose, write a draft of a plan for your degree. This draft should include every semester along with when you will take what types of courses. It is important to note, that some classes are only offered in the spring, or the fall, or every other year. This is where your advisor’s help can be invaluable.

To receive credit for this assignment you must turn in a digital draft of your academic plan to the Student Success Curriculum instructor.

Reminder – The ETS Proficiency Profile must be completed no later than 23 November 2015 following the guidelines provided during the 07 October 2015 meeting; failure to take and complete this exam by 23 November 2015 will result in a failing grade for FYE 100.
