

Available to the students of the University of Alaska Fairbanks:

- Undergraduate student research projects.
- Graduate students without other available research support.
- Students are limited to two awards at an academic level (undergraduate, MA, PhD)

Funds may be applied towards:

- field travel-related expenses
- field supplies (food, notebooks, etc)
- analytical work (lab processing)
- printing/duplicating reports

Funds may NOT be used for stipends or field assistant salaries

Submit to:

Dr. Patrick Druckenmiller
UA Museum, 907 Yukon Dr.
Fairbanks, AK 99775

907 Yukon Drive
P.O. Box 756960
Fairbanks, Alaska 99775-6960

THE 2009 GEIST FUND

PROPOSALS DUE NOT LATER THAN:
Friday, April 17, 2009

DECISIONS ON GRANTS:
Wednesday, April 29, 2009

As stated in the enabling gift, the funds are to be used for:

- Financing, in whole or in part, expeditions for archaeological, paleontological or ethnographic (material culture) field research.
- Scholarship or fellowship grants for students in Anthropology or Paleontology. Proposals from other fields considered when strongly tied into Paleontological or material culture research.

All collections must be accessioned and deposited in the University of Alaska Museum, unless other provisions have been approved in writing by the Museum prior to submitting the proposal.

Typically, grants to individuals are in the range of $1,000.00. All Awards are taxable.

PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS:

- Include project description, purpose and procedure.
- Not to exceed 5 pages, excluding budget or references.
- Budget page required, identify other funding sources or support if applicable.

TO APPLY, SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

- Six copies of application (also available at the Museum, or upon request).
- Six copies of proposal.
- Six copies of appropriate permit or application, permission of appropriate collection curator, and permission of appropriate Native entity
- Six copies of letter of recommendation.

FINAL REPORT SUBMITTED BY MARCH 10, 2010

- Two copies of financial and summary report (including an abstract) with original receipts.

Contact: Dr. Patrick Druckenmiller ffpsd@uaf.edu,
474-6954