Art is an experience: what you see and how you feel about it. There are no right or wrong responses.

TAKE YOUR TIME IN FRONT OF EACH ARTWORK YOU SEE.

1. Choose a painting with bold or pastel colors and spend some time in front of it. Write 4 words that describe how this painting makes you feel.
   1. _____________________________________________
   2. _____________________________________________
   3. _____________________________________________
   4. _____________________________________________

2. This artwork was made for HERB’s birthday. Using your name, make your own art with words. How would you arrange the letters?

3. Look for this painting. What do you see (don’t forget, there is no right or wrong response)?
   _____________________________________________

Look at the ones next to it and share what you see with a classmate/family member.
4. Herbert and Dorothy Vogel loved animals. Can you spot some animals in the paintings? Write down the animals you see:

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

5. Be inspired and sketch your own artwork: