

Docent Training September 8-19, 2008

- Museum docents are volunteers who work with a team to lead K-6 grade class tours during the academic school year.
- Docents commit to 3 hours per week for a full semester.
No prior experience is necessary!
- Call Museum Education to register for training 474-5360.

Professional training prepares you to use the museum's hands-on collection and exhibitions to teach students. Museum docents gain valuable experience in education and interpretation as well as learning more about Alaska's natural and cultural history. Credit available.
