

FREE LECTURES

Discover Alaska

Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in the Murie Building Auditorium

May 31
A Century of Earthquakes in Central Alaska
Carl Tape, UAF Associate Professor of Geophysics

June 7
The Modern Blanket Toss
John Monahan, Director of Upward Bound

June 14
Partnerships in Fire Resilience: How to prevent fires and prepare yourself and your home
Doug Schrage, Chief, UAF Fire Department

June 21
Adventures of the Sikuliaq: Living and working on a research ship
Brad Moran, Dean, College of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences

June 28
To Protect and To Share: A walkabout of two northern national parks with an Oldtyme Ranger
Greg Dudgeon, Superintendent, Gates of the Arctic National Park and Preserve, and Yukon-Charley Rivers National Preserve

July 12
Why This Former East Coast Kid Values America's Last Frontier
Don Striker, Superintendent, Denali National Park and Preserve

July 19
Alaskans in Conversation
Robert Hannon, Journalist and On-call News Producer, KUAC

July 26
The 150th Anniversary of the Alaska Purchase
Dermot Cole, Author and Journalist

August 2
The History of the African American Community in Fairbanks
Dorothy Jones, UAF Associate Professor, Emeritus

August 9
As Green As It Gets
Karl Kassel, Mayor, Fairbanks North Star Borough

DISCOVER ALASKA LECTURES ARE MADE POSSIBLE BY THE GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS OF

Photos courtesy of respective speakers