

SUMMER SESSIONS 2010 COURSE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR _____ DEPARTMENT
DUE OCTOBER 5, 2009

Session	Course #	Course Title	Instructor	*Morning, Afternoon, Evening?	Smart room required?	Max Capacity	Costs beyond faculty salaries
MAYmester May 17-28 Five-Week (3cr) June 1-July 2 Six-Week I (4cr) May 24-July 2 Six-Week II July 7-Aug 13 Eleven-Week June 1-Aug 13 AUGUSTmester August 17-28 Other _____

- * Time preferences cannot be guaranteed but will be taken into consideration when developing the summer schedule.
-  Specify applicable maximum enrollments. If no justifiable maximum is indicated, unlimited enrollment is permitted.
-  Specify all costs Summer Sessions is expected to bear above and beyond faculty salaries. These may include teaching or laboratory assistants, paper graders, transportation, materials, etc. Special fees may be required and must be authorized in advance of course offering.

NOTE: Special topics and compressed courses need to be approved by November 20, 2009 to be included in the Summer Sessions print catalog.

Department Chair's Signature _____ Date _____ Dean's/Director's Signature _____ Date _____

Department Chair's Name Printed _____ Dean's/Director's Name Printed _____