

Giving Life to Beauty—Outdoor Painting in Ireland
September 10-20, 2008
Itinerary

Dublin, County Mayo, Aran Islands, Galway Bay, Achill Island

Day 1 and Day 2: Dublin

Tour of the National Gallery led by Dr. Giles Baily

<http://www.nationalgallery.ie/>

Guided tour of the National Museum of Archaeology and History

<http://www.museum.ie/archaeology/>

Optional trips: Chester Beatty Library

<http://www.cbl.ie/>

and Trinity College where you can view the Book of Kells.

<http://www.tcd.ie/Library/heritage/kells.php>

Day 3: Train to County Mayo in the West of Ireland

<http://www.mayo-ireland.ie/Mayo/History/History.htm>

Residence and studio: Mullac Fraoig in Mulranny on the banks of Clew Bay

Day 4 through Day 10: Outdoor Painting days, day trip to Aran Islands in Galway Bay, <http://www.aranislands.ie/> and free days to explore on your own.

Some points of interest: Hennigan's Heritage Farm

<http://www.museumsofmayo.com/hennigan.htm>

<http://www.museum.ie/countrylife/overview.asp>

Last night is spent back in Dublin at an airport Hotel for easy departure in the morning.