23-Jan	Earth in the Hot Seat 	Alaska and Climate Change	2002	50 min	5732	EARTH IN THE HOT SEAT takes a long look at global warming and meets with scientists to learn what the future may hold. Visit Alaska, where the average temperature has increased so much in the last 20 years that glaciers are melting at a record rate and settlements are being threatened. Meet paleoclimatologist Lonnie Thompson, from Ohio State University, who has traveled throughout South America and China retrieving glacial cores from atop some of the world's highest mountains. His findings strongly suggest that the warming is man-made--and that we are running out of time to undo the damage. - http://www.tower.com/investigative-reports-earth-in-hot-seat-dvd/wapi/113719168

20-Feb	Milking the Rhino 	Eco tourism/Africa	2009	83 min	6132	Milking the Rhino examines the deepening conflict between humans and animals in an ever-shrinking world. It is the first major documentary to explore wildlife conservation from the perspective of people who live with wild animals. Shot in some of the world's most magnificent locales, Rhino offers complex, intimate portraits of rural Africans at the forefront of community-based conservation: a revolution that is turning poachers into preservationists and local people into the stewards of their land. http://milkingtherhino.org/film.php
27-Feb	Nova. Power Surge 	Alternative Energy	2011	53 min	8114	Can emerging technology defeat global warming? The United States has invested tens of billions of dollars in clean energy projects as our leaders try to save our crumbling economy and our poisoned planet in one bold, green stroke. Are we finally on the brink of a green-energy "power surge," or is it all a case of too little, too late?
5-Mar	The Tipping Point 	Arctic melt down/Climate Change	2009	45 min	6794	The Arctic Ice Sea, a plate of ice roughly the size of Europe, is disappearing. This film takes us on an ice breaker, in the company of scientists, through the fabled Northwest Passage. With our own eyes we see how polar bears, seals and arctic birds are struggling to adapt to the rising temperature and their shrinking terrain. But beyond our concern for the wildlife, there are very worrisome concerns about the effect on human life of the melting ice cap - http://www.worldcat.org/title/tipping-point-global-warming-at-the-arctic-circle/oclc/318810579
