

Student Organization Awards

2010-2011

Due Friday, April 8, 2011 by 5pm
to the LIVE Program Office

Legacy Award

Intent:

To recognize a group that has established a sustainable and growing legacy through strong organizational leadership in the midst of membership turnover and officer transition.

Criteria:

- Successful leadership/officer transition plan in place.
- Consistent and active participation as a group in campus activities (this could include: ASUAF Club Council, student organization activities hosted by the Leadership Program, community service, etc).
- Successful promotion and implementation of their own events.
- Demonstration of effective student or community leadership, as defined by the UAF Leadership Program (core objectives include: community engagement, visioning, experimental action, knowledge acquisition, appreciation of diversity, personal development, and communication).
- Information and accessibility provided to prospective members.
- Evidence of fiscal responsibility.

Requirements:

- A description of the group being nominated and why this student organization deserves the Legacy honor by specifically addressing the above criteria. If any of the above criteria, such as fiscal responsibility, do not apply to the group, please address this as well. No more than two double-spaced single-sided pages.
- At least two recommendation letters and no more than five letters from any of the following: students, faculty/staff, community members, and anyone else who is familiar with the group.
- Additional supporting materials that are pertinent to the nomination are encouraged but not required. This could include parts of a transition notebook, agendas from officer retreats or other meetings, elections paperwork, year long action plans or goal sheets, highlighted areas of a constitution or bylaws, and other materials that demonstrate a thoughtful plan for sustainability. A maximum of five pages of such supporting evidence will be accepted.
- All of the above should be turned in together as one packet, paper-clipped or stapled in the above order with the attached completed cover page.
- The majority of the evidence supplied in this nomination needs to have occurred between April 2, 2010 through April 8, 2011.
