Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose	Intended Objectives/Outcomes	Assessment Criteria and Procedures	Implementation (what, when, who)
MISSION STATEMENT: The Alaska Native Language Program endeavors to teach Alaska Native Languages, train quality instructors of Native language and culture, and work with organizations around the state to support excellence in Native language programs at all levels. ANLP supports the maintenance and transmission of Alaska Native languages through language teaching, teacher education, and research. GOAL STATEMENT: 1) Prepare students to communicate in both written and oral Alaska Native Languages; 2) Familiarize students with the literature in the language of study; and 3) Teach students to understand and utilize Alaska Native grammars and languages in real-life situations.	Ability to speak ANL at a high proficiency level.	Spoken chapter exercises, end-of-chapter exams, oral presentations, and final examinations in the language of study at all levels.	Course instructor and program faculty will attend and evaluate presentations.
	Knowledge of the written language.	Examples of student work in the target language, including from senior-level classes.	Faculty evaluation committee will review written work and oral in the target language.
	Familiarity and incorporate ANL and literature.	Students produce a translation and analytical essay about a work of literature written in the language of study in increasing capacity as students advance in their course work.	Faculty evaluation committee will review and score student materials.
	Understanding, comprehension and utilization of the ANL grammar.	Students will periodically produce written texts for oral presentation, incorporating ANL grammar.	Faculty evaluation committee will review and score student materials.
	Students' everyday use of the language learned.	Survey of entering and graduating majors of ANL.	Faculty evaluation committee will review surveys and make periodical survey as to how graduates are using the target language in their chosen profession.
