

UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS
Student Learning Outcomes Assessment Plan
Tribal Governance Certificate
 College of Indigenous Studies
 F2025

Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose	Intended Objectives/Outcomes	Assessment Criteria and Procedures	Implementation (what, when, who)
MISSION STATEMENT: At the Department of Tribal Governance our mission is to strengthen tribal governance and leadership for community well-being. GOAL STATEMENT: 1. Provide a high-quality degree that meets the diverse needs of tribal governments, with courses and curriculum designed in partnership with tribal governments. 2. Educate our students in leadership, governance, administration, public policy and law.	Certificate graduates in Tribal Governance will possess the skills and knowledge to successfully perform entry-level public service and program administration.	Instrument: Practicum Supervisor Evaluation Rubric: Percentage of positive responses Min. Standard: 80% of Supervisors will express satisfaction with the skills, knowledge and ability of the student.	Faculty will review each TG 199 Practicum Supervisor Evaluation to determine satisfaction. Faculty reports on completion.
	Students will identify the organization and development of tribal governments, constitutions and tribal courts in Alaska.	Instrument: Imbedded questions Rubric: percentage of correct answers Min. Standard: 70% of students meet or exceed expectations.	Questions imbedded in TG 101 Final Exam. Faculty reports on completion.
	Students will be able to describe introductory management skills and concepts, including project design, management and implementation.	Instrument: Imbedded questions Rubric: percentage of correct answers Min. Standard: 70% of students meet or exceed expectations.	Questions imbedded in TG 105 Final Assignment. Faculty reports on completion.