How have basket makers responded to the impacts of colonial regimes?

What role do museums play in the temporal dynamics of tradition and style?

How does the discourse concerning the aesthetic and social functions of basketry differ within and outside of various museums?