1. Assessment information collected
   Copies of the U.S. Department of Labor certificate of “Completion of Apprenticeship” collected and recorded. Educational plan developed for students by advisor. Student learning outcomes for core classes evaluated.

2. Conclusions drawn from the information summarized above
   100% of graduating students completed a U.S. Department of Labor apprenticeship program. 100% of graduates are working in their fields full or part-time.

3. Curricular changes resulting from conclusions drawn above
   No curricular changes necessary – degree exists as a pathway to give credit for life-long working and training experience in industry.

4. Identify the faculty members involved in reaching the conclusions drawn above and agreeing upon the curricular changes resulting
   Roger Weggel, Arvid Weflen