Department of Atmospheric Sciences
Evaluation of Oral Presentation

Faculty in oral intensive courses will have students give several oral presentations with feedback. Faculty can choose to formally evaluate all students or a representative sample (approximately 3) to track over the course of the semester.

Student: _____   Course:_ _____

Reviewer:_____   Instructor:_____

This is the student's _____(1st, 2nd, etc.) written assignment in this class.

Please rate the following categories (or NA if not applicable)

5	4	3		2	1
Excellent	Very Good	Adequate		Fair	Poor

General organization of presentation	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Statement of hypothesis, problem, or subject in introduction	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Introduction generates audience interest	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Demonstration knowledge of previous work in the field and acknowledges sources of information	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Use of data to formulate or test hypothesis	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Clear distinction of interpretation of data	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Clear statement of conclusion	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Demonstrates an understanding of underlying concepts	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Ability to answer questions from the audience	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Clarity of voice	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Presentation is tailored to the audience and involves interaction with the audience	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Comfort in speaking	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Effective use of visual aids	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Technical quality of visual aids	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Time management (finished in a timely manner)	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Evidence that the talk was practiced	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Incorporation of feedback	5	4	3	2	1	NA
Overall rating of presentation	5	4	3	2	1	NA

Comments:

Please return this form to: Department of Atmospheric Sciences, University of Alaska Fairbanks, Fairbanks, AK 99775-7320