YUPIIT PICIRYARAIT CULTURAL CENTER AND BETHEL CONSORTIUM LIBRARY Patron Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Yupiit Piciryarait Cultural Center and Bethel Consortium Library is to provide informational, educational, and recreational materials and services for the people of the City of Bethel and the Yukon-Kuskokwim area. This is accomplished through development, maintenance, and promotion of materials, physical spaces, and programs responsive to the diverse interests and needs of our community.

The Yupiit Piciryarait Cultural Center and Bethel Consortium Library is available to persons of all ages. While everyone has an equal right to access library services and facilities, no person has the right to interfere with the ability of others to use and enjoy library resources, services, and facilities.

To ensure that everyone enjoys using the library, the following rules have been established and adopted by the University of Alaska, Fairbanks, Kuskokwim Campus.

To provide an enjoyable library experience for everyone, no person shall:

- Harass or annoy others through noisy or boisterous activities or behave in a manner which can reasonably be expected to disturb other persons
- Engage in any illegal activity
- Violate library computer use or Internet policies
- Possess dangerous weapons except to the extent allowed by state law
- Solicit funds for any person, cause, or organization
- Consume food or beverages except as specifically allowed by library staff
- Fail to follow the reasonable direction or request of a library employee
- Interfere with the use of the library by other patrons or with library employees' performance of their duties
- Destroy, damage, or deface library property or the personal property of library patrons or staff
- Possess, use, give away, sell, or be under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance
