

Historical Perspectives on Alaska Native Health Care

Thursday, March 29, 2012
109 Butrovich Building

AGENDA

- 8:30 – 8:50 Breakfast/Coffee
- 8:50 – 9:00 Welcome
Scarlett Hopkins, CANHR Community Engagement and Clinical Support
Core Director
- 9:00 – 10:00 Tribal Nations: The Story of Federal Indian Law
60-minute film, produced by Lisa Jaeger, Tribal Government Specialist,
Tanana Chiefs Conference
- 10:00 – 10:30 The History of Tribal Sovereignty in Alaska
Presenter: Lisa Jaeger, Tribal Government Specialist, Tanana Chiefs
Conference
- 10:30 – 11:00 Break
- 11:00 – 12:30 A Brief History of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA)
Presenter: Miranda Wright, Associate Professor, UAF Alaska Native
Studies and Rural Development
- 12:30 – 1:30 Working lunch
- 1:30 – 3:00 How Tribes and Tribal Health Organizations are Organized to Provide Health Services in Alaska
Presenter: Paul Sherry, Health Systems Strategist, Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium
- 3:00 – 3:15 Break
- 3:15 – 3:45 Current Alaska Native Health Care Concerns and Priorities
Keynote Speaker: H. Sally Smith, Bristol Bay Area Health Corporation,
Alaska Native Health Board, CANHR External Advisory Council
- 3:45 – 4:40 Discussion Panel
Moderator: H. Sally Smith.
- 4:30 Closing remarks