"CBSM accepted my professional certification for college credit, saving me time and making the transition smooth. Since then, I've gained incredible professional opportunities, including a remote role with a nationwide company. The BAM program has transformed my degree into a tool to shape the future I want."

Felicia Alexander, BAM '25

Turn real experience into college credits

Students in the Applied Management program will complete 18-30 credits in a single technical area. Technical area credits can come from coursework, professional certifications, or training.

Accepted credentials are subject to change and require approval from advisors and/or program directors.
