

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH (abridged)
SUSAN M. HENRICHS

Education: Chemical Oceanography, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution - Massachusetts Institute of Technology Joint Program. Ph.D., 1980.
 Chemistry and Chemical Oceanography, University of Washington.
 B.S., summa cum laude, 1975.

Professional

Positions: Provost, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 2007-2018
 Dean of the Graduate School and Vice Provost, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 2003 - 2007.
 Professor, Institute of Marine Science and School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1994 - 2003.
 Program Head, Graduate Program in Marine Sciences and Limnology, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1992 - 2003.
 Radiation Safety Officer, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1993-2008.
 Associate Professor, Institute of Marine Science and School of Fisheries and Ocean Sciences, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1987-1994.
 Assistant Professor, Institute of Marine Science, University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1982-1987.
 Postdoctoral Research Chemist, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, 1981-82.
