

UAF ANTHROPOLOGY COLLOQUIUM

Anthropology will host speaker Dozandri Mendoza for a colloquium talk on zoom. Dozandri Mendoza is a Ph.D. Candidate in Linguistics, University of California, Santa Barbara Visiting Adjunct Faculty, University of Alaska, Fairbanks.

Cuntological Figures: Linguistic Performance Ethnography, Embodied Gestural Repertoires, and Voguing in Puerto Rico

Friday, October 25th, 2024

via Zoom

3 p.m. AKST

Dozandri Mendoza will explain their linguistic and semiotic anthropological work in the Puerto Rican Ballroom scene, explaining how vogue styles become recognizable and (re)performable by different members of the performance circuit through intimate kinship ties. Their work will highlight the importance of participatory ethnographic practice and centering the fabulosity and creative capacity of trans Latinx life.

EVENT CONTACT INFORMATION

Justin Cramb

Department of Anthropology

jecramb@alaska.edu

907-474-5911

<https://www.uaf.edu/anthro/>

ZOOM LINK

@uafanthro

@uafcla