

Introduction to Political Science & Pre-Law at UAF

Welcome to UAF! Please join us for an overview of the Political Science Major and Pre-Law!

POLITICAL SCIENCE
DEPARTMENT

Wednesday, June 11, 2025

1:00 pm AKST | via Zoom

Meeting ID: 860 7201 1365

For more information or to RSVP, please contact professor Carol Gray at cjgray5@alaska.edu.

- Meet the Chair of the Political Science Department
- Hear from UAF's Pre-Law Advisor
- Learn from a recent alum & student government leader
- Get the scoop on courses, clubs, internships & careers
- Ask questions and explore your options!

Meet the Speakers

Dr. Brandon M. Boylan is Chair and Professor of Political Science and Director of Arctic and Northern Studies at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. His research focuses on international security, ethnic conflict, separatism, and Arctic security and politics. He teaches courses in international relations and research methods. He advises the Model Arctic Council and Model United Nations. He has a Ph.D. in international affairs from the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Carol Gray, a former public defender, is an Assistant Professor of Public Law at UAF and advisor for pre-law students. She holds a JD from Northeastern, an LLM from Georgetown, and a PhD in Political Science. A former Fulbright and Rotary Scholar, Gray has earned multiple fellowships. She does research about the intersection of law, politics and human rights and is coordinator of UAF's Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program. Attorney Gray is the advisor to UAF's Pre-Law Club and teaches Constitutional Law: Civil Rights and Liberties; Gender & Reproductive Law and Politics, and other law-related courses.

Cole Osowski, a Political Science major from the Class of '25, was an Honors student and Climate Change Scholar, a recipient of two UAF Undergraduate Research & Scholarly Activity (URSA) grants, and an intern in the Alaska State Legislature in Juneau as part of the Ted Stevens Legislative Internship Program, a core part of the Political Science major. Cole participated in student government, serving as the student government President his Junior year. Cole will be participating in the John Quincy Adams Society Summer conference this July then attending Willamette School of Law in Oregon this fall.

