

ARCTIC LEADERSHIP LECTURE SERIES:

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY IN THE ARCTIC

WITH GUEST SPEAKER EREC S. ISAACSON

Join Erec S. Isaacson, President of ConocoPhillips Alaska, and Dr. Mark Myers for a fireside chat on business and industry in the Arctic. This engaging discussion will explore their personal and professional journeys, leadership styles, and the unique challenges of leading in Alaska's business sector. They will address resource development, industry challenges, and what it means to be a leader in today's Arctic business environment. The conversation will also provide valuable insights and advice for those interested in leadership roles in business, energy, and economic development in Alaska.
