Inv. GEIER returned to the Fairbanks Police Department where Lt. Officer was able to make contact with him due to shift commitments. Attempts to contact Franklin DAYTON were made by Inv. GEIER; however, those attempts met with negative results.

Sgt. KENDRICK and Det. RING conducted a second interview with George FRESE at the Fairbanks Police Department. At the conclusion of the interview, they advised that FRESE made admissions to his involvement in the assault. They also suspected Kevin PEASE and Marvin ROBERTS as being involved. They further suspected that a car owned by ROBERTS, blue two-door, may have been used.

The vehicle was described as a blue 2-door and a subsequent APSIN check revealed that a 1992 Dodge Shadow, AK LIC CNE325, was registered to Marvin ROBERTS.

INTERVIEW WITH MARVIN ROBERTS: ♥

On 10-11-97, Sgt. KENDRICK and Inv. GEIER proceeded to ROBERTS' residence, 1031 26th Avenue, and observed ROBERTS' vehicle parked in the driveway. Contact was made with ROBERTS and he agreed to speak with officers.

ROBERTS admitted to having attended the wedding reception at the Eagle's Hall on the night of 10.10.97 through the early morning hours of 10.11.97. ROBERTS agreed to respond to the Fairbanks Police Department to speak with officers after being asked by Sgt. KENDRICK to do so. ROBERTS was advised that he could drive his own vehicle to the Fairbanks Police Department or ride with officers and ROBERTS elected to ride with officers.

While enroute to the Fairbanks Police Department, ROBERTS advised officers that he had gone to the Eagle's Hall at approximately 2300 hrs. after picking up a friend of his named Daniel HUNTINGTON. While at the Eagle's Hall, he came into contact with another friend, Angelo EDWIN, and the three of them were together throughout the evening at the Eagle's Hall. ROBERTS advised, after the reception had ended, the three of them drove around in the Fairbanks area. Subsequently they went to the Alaskan Motor Inn because they heard of a party that was going on there. ROBERTS said the party was out of hand at the Alaskan Motor Inn so they left. He then gave HUNTINGTON and EDWIN a ride home, and went home himself. ROBERTS was asked if he had driven down Barnette Street during the evening and he said "no".

ROBERTS was again asked by Sgt. KENDRICK if he had driven down Barnette Street and he said "no". Inv. GEIER then advised ROBERTS a witness observed his vehicle at the intersection of Barnette Street and 9th Avenue, and ROBERTS admitted to having driven down Barnette Street that evening.

Officers then arrived at the Fairbanks Police Department and Sgt. KENDRICK began a one-on-one tape-recorded interview with ROBERTS. After Sgt. KENDRICK spoke with ROBERTS, he asked Inv. GEIER to continue the interview.

Inv. GEIER then interviewed ROBERTS and he denied having participated in the assault of HARTMAN at 9th Avenue and Barnette Street. Inv. GEIER showed ROBERTS Polaroid photographs of HARTMAN and HARTMAN's clothing. ROBERTS denied knowing who HARTMAN was and stated he had never seen him before. ROBERTS also stated he did not observe anyone that evening wearing the clothes in the photograph that was shown to him.

ROBERTS continued to deny any involvement and, subsequently, Det. RING entered the interview. Det. RING confronted ROBERTS with the admissions he had received from VENT and FRESE; however, ROBERTS continued to deny any involvement in the incident. Det. RING then exited the room and ROBERTS advised Inv. GEIER he was telling the truth and he wasn't there; however, ROBERTS did make the statement, "Maybe my car was there or something." but it wasn't in it.

Det. RING entered the interview again and played the recording of his interview with Eugene VENT for ROBERTS. At the conclusion of that recording, ROBERTS continued to deny any involvement in the assault. Inv. GEIER left the interview room while Det. RING continued talking with ROBERTS. Subsequently, ROBERTS requested to terminate the interview and go home, and he was allowed to do so. (For further information, refer to the tape recorded contact.)

what did they tell him in the car

After the interview, Inv. GEIER and Det. RING provided ROBERTS a ride to his residence. While enroute to the residence, ROBERTS continued to deny any involvement in the assault. HOW MANY TIMES DID HE HAVE TO TELL THEM

Upon arrival at ROBERTS' residence, Inv. GEIER and Det. RING seized ROBERTS' vehicle which was still parked in the driveway. The vehicle was impounded and transported to the Fairbanks Police Department, where it was placed in to Stall #7, pending the issuance of a search warrant.
