...I achieved something that in the past I would've never thought possible. My family's future has never looked so bright.
I have graduated and started working in my chosen career.”

—Charles E. Maitlen, Industrial Maintenance Graduate,
Pellissippi State Technical Community College & U.S. Army Veteran

*Eligible students must be entering their final year of Skilled Trades, Public Safety or Supply Chain studies at a participating college. Skilled Trades studies include electronic systems, heating/air conditioning, plumbing, welding, automotive, construction, facilities maintenance or other industrial trades. Public Safety studies include first responder, law enforcement (city, county, or state), prison guard, firefighter, fire safety, emergency medical technician, emergency management and disaster preparedness programs. Supply Chain studies include supply chain management, transportation, distribution or logistics.
