Certified Food Protection Manager Workshop
Tuesday, April 2 • 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
Taught by Julie Cascio, Mat-Su District Extension Agent

What is a certified food protection manager?
A certified food protection manager (CFPM) is responsible for monitoring and managing all food establishment operations to ensure that the facility is operating in compliance with food establishment regulations.

A CFPM is knowledgeable about food safety practices and uses this knowledge to provide consumers with safe food, protect public health and prevent foodborne illnesses. Alaska regulations require food establishments to have at least one CFPM on staff.

How do I become certified?
After you have completed this one-day training you must take and pass a certification exam before you work as a CFPM. Testing for this certification is computer-based.

NOTE: Test may be immediately after class or within a week, depending on when proctor is available in your community.

$200 (includes class, study guide and one proctored test)
Or contact: Julie Cascio, 907-745-3677 or jmcascio@alaska.edu

Training offered by videoconference at the following locations:
- Fairbanks: UAF
- Palmer: Matanuska Experiment Farm, Kerttula Hall Room 208
- Sitka: UAS Sitka Campus
- Juneau: UAS Juneau Campus
- Unalaska/Dutch Harbor: Unalaska Library
- Valdez: Valdez Consortium Library

(If you are in another location but would like to attend, please contact jmcascio@alaska.edu with location info so videoconference and proctoring can be arranged.)

Refund policy: Cancellation request must be received in writing at least 15 days prior to the date of the class. If the training book has not yet been mailed to the participant, a 100% refund will be made to the payer. If the book has been mailed, return the sealed CFPM book for a 90% refund when it is received at 1509 S. Georgeson, Palmer, AK, 99645. If the book has been opened and/or is not returned, a 50% refund will be given. No refunds will be given if the cancellation notice is within 14 days prior to class.
