The accompaniment is based on one chord voicing that is strummed for each measure. The C and D accompaniment parts feature the strummed chords with a harmony line attached to each chord.