Osher Lifelong Learning Institute
SOC-11, Spring 2018

CONSERVING LOCAL LANDS

20 March: Tako Raynolds - Interior Alaska Land Trust
27 March: Steve Taylor - Borough Large recreation areas
3 April: Bernardo Hernandez- Borough Planning

10 April: Anna Plager – Other Public Open Spaces
John Wright – Creamers Field Migratory Waterfowl Refuge
Dick Bishop – Goldstream Public Use Area

100+ Years of Development
Maps courtesy of Bob Henszey
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
bob_henszey@fws.gov
Chena Slough 1938
The Chena River in town was known as the Chena Slough, because it was connected upstream to the Tanana River before the Flood Control Project.
Topo Map Based on 1907 Survey and Revised in 1931
Fairbanks
2002
The Chena River in town was known as the Chena Slough, because it was connected upstream to the Tanana River before the Flood Control Project.